2026 UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE
The 2026 University of Houston Football media guide was designed, written and edited by the Houston Athletics Communications Department.
Covers created by Joe Gomez/Houston Football. Printing by University of Houston Printing and Postal Services.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be made online at UHCougars.com/Credentials AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A GAME. Seating in the press box or other designated media areas are for working media and scouts only.

All space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the Houston Athletics Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet. Spouses, dates, children, equipment carriers and non-workers are restricted from receiving credentials. Any abuse of a working credential will result in the media agency losing credential privileges.

Freelance and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared.

Admission to the press box is by credential only.

ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES

- Only full-time, salaried employees intending to provide actual game coverage may receive credentials.
- A requesting media agency must represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.
- Membership in a writers' association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.
- Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling.
- Previous year's receipt of Houston Athletics credentials and/or credential requests granted by other Houston sports teams do not guarantee granting of 2026-27 Houston Athletics credentials.
- Online entities or independent podcasts not associated with a traditional media agency are not guaranteed media access or credentials but are encouraged to utilize resources provided at UHCougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other UH Athletics information. An online entity or independent podcast not associated with a traditional media agency may qualify for one credential, subject to the following conditions:

1. Online entity has an established, long standing history of coverage and attendance at UH Athletics events, including games and media availabilities, and has a record of credible coverage through original content while upholding professional behavior towards media outlets and other schools.
2. Online entities that focus primarily on University of Houston Athletics and sponsor message boards or chat rooms, may receive credentials provided they adhere to a policy that requires that a posted message or opinion is identified with the actual name and city of the individual posting the message.
3. Any online service that is recognized as an outlet intended primarily for the purpose of delivering news related to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
4. Online entities (other than those identified above) registering 50,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months will be given first consideration.
5. Online entity may receive a credential only if its own full-time staff writes a majority of that site's material.

HOUSTON ON THE WEB

ASSISTANCE

The University of Houston Athletics Communications Office is at your service to assist you with your coverage. A comprehensive list of staff and sport assignments can be found by visiting UHCougars.com/communications.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, photos, video highlights, press conferences and satellite feeds, please email the Houston Athletics Communications Office at an email on page 2.

The Athletics Communications Office is located in the Ted Nance Suite (No. 2008) on the second floor of the Athletics/Alumni Center, located on Cullen Boulevard between Darryl & Lori Schroeder Park and Fertitta Center. If available, parking will be provided in the front lot of the Athletics/Alumni Center or in the alley lot between the AAC and Fertitta Center.

INTERVIEWS

Please direct all interview requests for coaches, student-athletes and staff to the Houston Athletics Communications office. Contacting student-athletes or coaches directly through text message, phone calls, social media or other direct avenues is strictly prohibited and could result in loss of credentials.

The locker, training and weight rooms along with team meeting rooms and hallways inside the Athletics/Alumni Center are off-limits to reporters unless escorted by a member of the Houston Athletics Communications Office.

The Houston Athletics Communications Office does not release student-athletes' phone numbers.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. No freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines.

The University of Houston is, and shall be, the sole owner of any and all copyrights, intellectual property rights and proprietary rights for images, sounds and data arising from or during Houston home athletics contests.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Stats are available online at uhcoogs.co/stats. Statistics will be emailed to those media who request such service following the game and will be posted at UHCougars.com.

VIDEO SERVICES

The University of Houston's Athletics Communications Office can provide video highlights to networks and television stations through Houston Athletics Content Solutions Department.

The Department has editing and studio facilities inside the Athletics/Alumni Center and can reproduce highlights and other materials upon receipt of requester's FTP information. Please make requests at least two days in advance.

LIVE STREAMING

Live video streaming of any Houston Athletics event, including news conferences, on ANY social media platform is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the Houston Athletics Communications office.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Houston Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission with a limitation of up to four (4) minutes in length from any single event.

Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of University of Houston Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Houston's athletic programs.

It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/postgame interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Houston Athletics Communications office with a Houston coach, student-athlete or administrator.

THE HOUSTON COUGARS

YEAR THREE OF WILLIE FRITZ

Willie Fritz, the back-to-back American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year who boasts 33 years of collegiate head coaching experience, enters his third year with the Cougars and 34th overall. Fritz was named the 16th head coach in University of Houston football history on Sunday, Dec. 3, 2023.

Fritz, who ranks third nationally among active FBS head coaches with 222 victories, led Houston to its 10th 10-win season in 2025 and its first since 2021 following a four-win season in Year 1 in 2024.

The Shawnee Mission, Kan., native owns nine career 10-plus win seasons and seven conference championships, including the 2022 American Athletic Conference title. The 2025 George Munger Coach of the Year Award Watch List honoree is 261-132-1 all-time as a head coach dating to his 1993 beginnings at Blinn College.

RECRUIT. RETAIN. DEVELOP.

Following three-straight seasons where the Cougars roster has seen nearly more newcomers than returners, Houston has limited the need for transfer additions thanks to Coach Willie Fritz's motto of recruit, retain, develop. Coach Fritz and company have secured the return of half the starting offense and half the starting defense while ranking third nationally in retention with just two transfer departures departing with more than 100 snaps played in 2025.

On the flip side, Houston has brought in just 19 transfers, the lowest in three seasons, yet those transfers accounted for the seventh best transfer class in the country according to On3. The additions of RB Makhi Hughes (Oregon), WR Trent Walker (Oregon State), OL Shadre Hurst (Tulane), OL Anthony Boswell (Toledo), DL Asthon Porter (Oregon) and S Javion White (Tulane) helped put Houston in the top 10 nationally.

Pair the newcomers with returning quarterback Conner Weigman and breakout star receiver Amare Thomas on offense and defensive back Will James, safeties Jordan Allen and Kentrell Webb, along with linebacker Sione Fotu and defensive lineman Khalil Laufau, the Cougars are bringing back a strong core that hopes to be fruitful.

Recruiting and retaining athletes shows the culture Coach Fritz has built in just two seasons. The development of multiple athletes during his time has been the difference maker. Eight Group of 5 transfers in 2025 earned All-Big 12 Conference honors proving that Coach Fritz and his staff also develop athletes.

The 2026 Cougars will look to be the first Houston team to win 10 games in back-to-back seasons in program history. Coach Fritz and Co., and their recruit, retain, develop mantra gives the Cougars every chance to do so.

CONSISTENT COORDINATORS

For the first time since 2022, Houston returns both its Offensive and Defensive Coordinators as the Cougars and Head Coach Willie Fritz's look to build on the 2025 season where they won 10 games for the 10th time in program history. With Slade Nagle and Austin Armstrong calling plays for the offense and defense respectively, Houston will attempt to win 10 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history.

Houston is one of two schools in the Big 12 Conference and 11 nationally that return its head coach, both coordinators and starting quarterback from 2025.

For Nagle, the 2026 season marks the fourth FBS season as the play caller—calling plays in 2022-23 for Tulane and 2025-26 for Houston. Nagle will be without All-American tight end Tanner Koziol for his quarterback to rely on but returns fifth-year Conner Weigman under center and All-Big 12 wide receiver Amare Thomas.

Armstrong enters his second season in Houston following a season of success with the Cougars where Houston forced 16 fumbles and intercepted 12 passes while being one of the top defenses in the nation on third down (40th) and in the red zone (27th). Armstrong returns both of his starting safeties, and a starter at linebacker, cornerback and two defensive linemen including eighth-year senior Brandon Mack II.

As offensive coordinator in 2025, Nagle guided the Cougars offense to score to 20+ points in 11 of 13 contests and scored 30 points in eight games—an increase from three 20-point games and two 30-point games in 2024 under the previous OC—in their 10-win season and 6-3 mark in the Big 12.

In Armstrong's 10 seasons coaching, including nine at the FBS level, he has helped programs to six bowl appearances and three conference championship game appearances, highlighted by the Cougars 2025 Texas Bowl victory over LSU.

NEXT LEVEL DEVELOPMENT

Houston was one of 26 schools to have a player drafted in both the 2026 NFL Draft and NBA Draft. Houston Football's Tanner Koziol was selected in the Fifth Round by the Jacksonville Jaguars while three Houston Men's Basketball players were selected – Kingston Flemings (1st, 8th overall), Chris Cenac Jr. (1st, 27th overall) and Emanuel Sharp (2nd, 45th overall).

Houston was one of eight Big 12 schools included in the list. The Big 12 led all conferences with eight of the 26 schools being Big 12 Schools.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN
Houston took advantage of having a "favorable" Big 12 schedule in 2025, but ended up playing four ranked teams in 2025 (Texas Tech, TCU, Arizona, Arizona State). Despite the difficult schedule, the Cougars rattled off 10 wins for the second time in a decade, and first since 2021, and was the only FBS team to win all six road games. The 2026 schedule shapes up to be the most grueling road slate with trips to Salt Lake City, Utah, Boulder, Colo., Stateboro, Ga., Lubbock, Texas and Morgantown, W.Va. The travel alone will be taxing. Facing two top 25 teams (#7 Texas Tech and #14 Utah), both on the road, will provide an additional challenge.

Just two opponents from the state of Texas grace Houston's 2026 schedule, the fewest in a full season since 2015 when the Cougars played Texas State and SMU. In 2026, the Cougars will play open and close Big 12 Conference play with in-state rivals Texas Tech (Big 12 opener) and Baylor (regular season finale).

Houston will make its first ever trips to multiple opponents in 2026, traveling to Colorado, Utah, West Virginia and Georgia Southern – and will face Georgia Southern for the first time ever when the two face off in late September in Coach Fritz's return to Statesboro after coaching two seasons for the Eagles in 2014-15.

For the third consecutive year, the Cougars will play multiple weeknight games, with Houston set for two Big 12 road games in 2026. The Cougars will travel to Texas Tech for a Friday night showdown in Week 3 before a November trip to play at Colorado, also on a Friday night. Houston is 10-3 on Friday's dating back to 2021.

EXPERIENCED SQUAD
Houston ranks second nationally with 489 total starts across the roster and second nationally in offensive snaps played with 18,538. The Cougars are one of three Big 12 schools with offenses and defenses in the top 20 in terms of experience. That experience helped lead the Cougars to a 6-win improvement from Year 1 of the Willie Fritz Era to Year 2 in 2025 and will be the reason Houston builds yet again on the 10-win season from a year ago.

According to CBS, Houston is a potential Big 12 contender despite sitting just outside the top 25 of the CBS Sports 138. The Cougars are especially experienced at the skill positions, with the addition of running back Makhi Hughes, who reunites with Willie Fritz after their time together at Tulane. Houston added five other transfers with at least 700 career snaps, including offensive lineman Shadre Hurst, who ranks sixth nationally in career snaps. The Cougars also return seven starters on offense, led by quarterback Conner Weigman.

TAKE IV IN THE BIG 12
Houston has been in the Big 12 for just three seasons and has improved its league win total in every season, including a 10-win season in 2025 which included six conference wins – good for a fourth place finish. The 2026 team is looking to build on the 10 wins as its seeks its first Big 12 title game appearance and first College Football Playoff appearance.

The Cougars were the only FBS team to win all six road games in 2025 — the third time in program history the Cougars went 6-0 on the road. Part of Houston's road dominance hinged on its defense holding opponents offenses to 18.3 points per game (13th nationlly) and a 31.0 road scoring averaged (25th nationally).

Houston improved in nearly every statistical category in 2025 most noticeably on offense where the Cougars improved from last among Big 12 teams in total offense (288.1) in 2024 to 10th (394.5) — ranking 60th nationally. Houston's offense returns air-attack duo quarterback Conner Weigman and wide receiver Amare Thomas. Weigman, underappreciated by the media all season, led the Big 12 in total touchdowns (36) and finished seventh in passing yards (2,705) in the league. Thomas was a First Team All-Big 12 selection in his first season as a Coog when he hauled in the second most receiving touchdowns in the Big 12 (12) and receiving yards (966).

On the defensive side of the ball, the Cougars return two starting linemen – Khalil Laufau and Brandon Mack II, a starting linebacker – Sione Fotu, and three starting defensive backs – Will James, Kentrell Webb and Jordan Allen, from a squad that proved to be one of the best in 2025, specifically in the redzone where Houston ranked 27th nationally not allowing teams to score once their opponent moved the ball inside the 20. The Cougars were also strong on third and fourth downs, one of the top 50 teams in FBS on late downs.

QB1 IS BETTER THAN YOU THINK
Quarterback Conner Weigman is one of the best signal callers in the Big 12 and nation following a breakout junior season for the Cougars in 2025 where he accounted for 36 total touchdowns – 25 passing and 11 rushing – which led the Big 12 and was 7th-most nationally. Weigman's 3,405 yards of offense were the most since 2021 and 12th most since 1996 – his 700 rushing yards were the second most by a Houston QB since 1996.

Among returning Big 12 quarterbacks, Weigman's 25 passing touchdowns is second in the league, his 11 rushing touchdowns are tied for the most in the conference, his 2,705 passing yards are third in the Big 12 and his 700 rushing yards leads the league, his 65.2 completion percentage leads returning Big 12 QBs and his 147.1 QB rating ranks second.

NOTING THE COUGARS

OFFENSE

Houston's offense will look to expand under second-year offensive coordinator Slade Nagle who helped orchestrate Houston's 10-win season and improvement in nearly every offensive statistical category.

The Cougars return quarterback Conner Weigman, who was healthy for the first offseason and spring of his collegiate career, wide receiver Amare Thomas, who was an All-American, along with two additional starting wide receivers and two starters on the offensive line. The returning core, plus the addition of Houston's best recruiting class in school history put Houston in a great position to improve on the 10-win 2025 season.

Four straight games rushing for four touchdowns.

NOTING THE COUGARS

SUMMARY:
Houston has to replace the offensive production of Dean Connors whose 977 rushing yards were the most by a Cougar since 2015 but returns junior DJ Butler who came on strong late in 2025 and adds two stellar backs in senior Makhi Hughes, who reunites with head coach Willie Fritz, offensive coordinator Slade Nagle and running backs coach Jordy Joseph from their time at Tulane. The Cougars also added four-star running back John Hebert who rushed for over 8,000 career yards in high school. Hughes was a two-time All-AAC selection and a Freshman All-American at Tulane. Junior Re'Shaun Sanford II returns after missing his second season due to injury.

SUMMARY:
Houston once again rebuilt the offensive line in the offseason, but this season brought in award winning starters to protect potentially the best quarterback in the Big 12. The Cougars added Tulane guard Shadre Hurst, who reunites with offensive line coach Eman Naghavi and head coach Willie Fritz, center Anthony Boswell and tackle Drew Terrill. All three were all-conference picks at their previous school and Boswell was a Freshman All-American. The three join tackle Alvin Ebosele and guard McKenzie Agnello. Junior Larry Crawford also looks to see playing time.

DEFENSE

The Cougars were stout in 2025 under defensive coordinator Austin Armstrong and with a bulk of the defense returning, Houston and Armstrong hope the team can once again be clinical on third and fourth downs and in the red zone, just like they were a year ago.

Houston returns six starters – three in the secondary. The additions of a trio of players with College Football Playoff experience will greatly improve the whole group.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR EDDIE NUÑEZ

EDDIE NUÑEZ

University of Houston Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics
Athletics Director, University of Houston

Eddie Nuñez was named Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Houston on Aug. 17, 2024, joining the Cougars after successfully holding leadership positions at the University of New Mexico and LSU.

In his first year at Houston during 2024-25, Nuñez helped the Cougars achieve bountiful success on the playing surface and in the classroom with the Men's Basketball team competing for a National Championship in the 2025 NCAA title game, to academic record setting semesters and recording the highest APR score in school history of 987.

Financially, Nuñez and the Cougars launched the Nantz Leadership Society which is Houston's new philanthropic giving society which was accompanied by an annual fund giving record of over $9 million thanks to a record 160 major gifts closed during the 2024-25 year. Nearly half of the 160 major gifts were for over $100,000 and was a 97% increase in department single year giving.

Prior to Houston, Nuñez served as Vice President/Director of Athletics at New Mexico dating to Aug. 31, 2017. During his tenure at UNM, Nuñez oversaw significant success both on and off the field. Under his leadership, the Lobos secured 53 NCAA Tournament appearances, 22 Mountain West Conference titles, and numerous academic accolades, including leading the Mountain West in academic honors. He also spearheaded the development of the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center and restructured key partnerships to ensure the long-term financial success of UNM Athletics.

In his seven years in the AD's chair, Nuñez presided over plenty of success stories, starting with a National Championship in Cross Country in 2017. The 455 All-Conference performers included 49 conference Athletes of the Year and 17 conference Coach of the Year awards. Academically, UNM's 1,517 Mountain West All-Academic selections and 1,142 Mountain West Scholar-Athletes are the highest total among all Mountain West schools over that time frame.

Throughout it all, academic success defined his tenure. In his time at New Mexico, 12 of 14 programs set program GPA records, and 13 of 14 turned in at least two top-5 semester GPAs. Additionally, GPA records for male, female and all student- athletes were set four times. The Lobos also initiated a highly-successful stole ceremony to honor all graduating student-athletes.

For 14 years, starting in 2003, Nuñez served in a variety of high-level administrative capacities at LSU, one of the nation's top athletic departments. He also served as the department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties, the Tiger Athletic Foundation and University Licensing and Brand Management.

While he held seven positions and titles at LSU, the department continually flourished. Under his guidance, LSU experienced of $400 million in facility renovations and construction, and Nuñez led the renegotiations of a 10-year multi-media rights agreement with Outfront Media Sports.

Additionally, he oversaw planning and management of the LSU Athletics Strategic Plan, Marketing and Promotions, Athletic Communications, Social and Digital Media, Creative Services, Video/ Network Broadcast Services and all capital projects.

While he made his mark collegiately at LSU, Nuñez began his career as a collegiate administrator at Vanderbilt University, where he was the Director of Game and Event Management where he also assisted in construction and planning of numerous facility upgrades.

A former college athlete, Nuñez played four years of basketball, starting at Miami-Dade Community College before transferring to Florida, playing for Billy Donovan. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Donovan at Florida before being named an administrative assistant at Marquette.

A native of Miami, Florida, Nuñez received his Associate Degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College, his Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management and Master's Degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple are proud parents of two daughters, Elizabeth and Anna.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

TIER ONE UNIVERSITY • RANKED ONE OF THE BEST COLLEGES IN U.S.

• Founded in 1927, the University of Houston is the largest public research university in the vibrant international city of Houston and the third largest university in Texas. Each year, we educate more than 48,000 students in close to 300 undergraduate and graduate academic programs, on campus and online. UH awards more than 10,500 degrees annually, with 349,855 alumni.

• UH is located in the nation's fourth-largest city and the energy capital of the world. Our students regularly test their skills through internships with national and international companies based here, and our faculty routinely partner with businesses and government agencies through research.

• Our undergraduates choose from 150 degree programs. At the graduate level, we offer 110 master's, 47 doctoral, and three professional degree programs. You may study online through our Distance Education program, or take noncredit courses through Continuing Education. Many of our academic programs rank among the nation's best.

• About 8,400 students live on campus in residence halls, apartments and townhouses—the highest on-campus bed total in the state of Texas.

• Our faculty and students are members of 29 national academies across the University. UH research regularly breaks new ground and opens doors to new ways of understanding the world.

• There are over 315,000 living UH alumni and over 349,855 total alumni. The school's endowment crossed the $1 billion mark during 2021.

• When the Carnegie Foundation elevated the University of Houston to Tier One status in 2011, the designation made the university one of only three public Tier One research universities in the state of Texas, along with the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

#1 in ENTREPRENEURSHIP

At the University of Houston, we spur innovation by encouraging the very spark of an idea to the transfer of knowledge and technology with 13 national research centers.

Houston ranked 40th in social mobility score which ranked third among Texas public schools for social mobility.

#40 IN SOCIAL MOBILITY

#52 PUBLIC RESEARCH UNIVERSITY

UH is the #52 ranked public research institution nationwide and #91 among all U.S. universities.

Houston is a Tier 1 research institution.

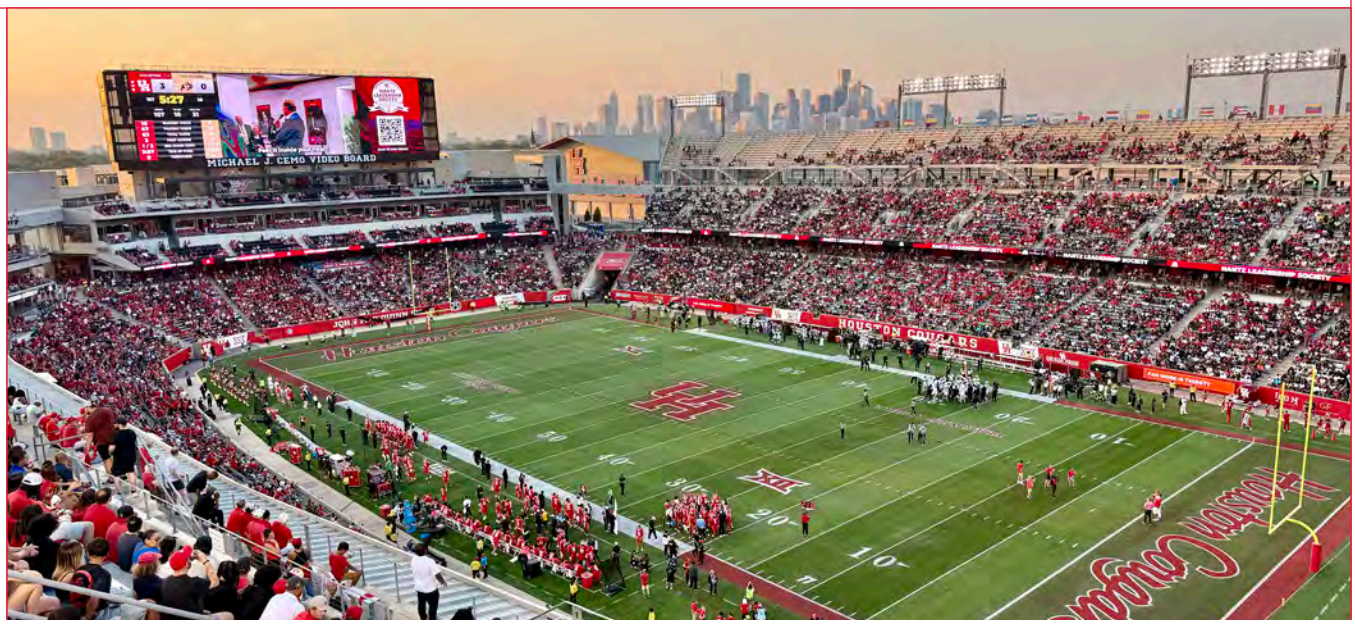
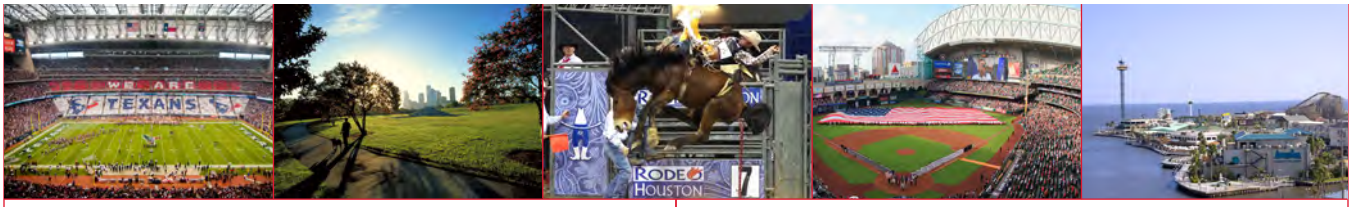
HOUSTON - OUR CITY



FOURTH LARGEST CITY IN NATION • VOTED BEST CITY IN AMERICA



• The style-savvy residents of the country's fourth-largest city and third-largest county (Harris) know that there's no place quite like Houston.

• With more than 2.2 million residents, the city attracts visitors and transplants with a wonderful mix of world-class arts, booming business, pro and college sports and award-winning cuisine.

• As the rest of the country discovers what locals have known all along, Houston is finally enjoying the recognition it deserves. Just last year, the city landed on several "best of" lists, including the Travel + Leisure roundup of America's Favorite Cities and the Hotwire.com index of most affordable U.S. vacation destinations.

• See for yourself, here in Houston, where much of daily life happens outdoors, thanks to mild, year-round temperatures. Take time to explore the eclectic, culture-filled neighborhoods, gallery spaces and attractions, which offer diverse flavors that can only be found here.

• Take the food, for example. Countless cutting-edge chefs have made a home in Houston, where diners eat out more than residents of any other city. Here, you'll find James Beard Award winners and internationally renowned chefs serving up innovative cuisine that frequently catches the attention of foodies in Bon Appetit, Food & Wine and Saveur.

• Venture Downtown during your stay and discover a thriving professional arts scene with professional resident companies in ballet, opera, symphony and theater; only four other U.S. cities can say the same. And the nearby Museum District stakes its claim as the country's fourth largest, with 18 cultural powerhouses set within blocks of one another.

• We have our own version of Central Park, too, offering nearly 1,500 acres of green space in the heart of the city. Just inside "the loop," Memorial Park is home to a public golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, trails and more. Downtown, Discovery Green park is outfitted with WiFi, a farmers market, dog runs, fine dining and ice-skating during the winter—just one more of the 650-plus urban green spaces filling the city.

• Not surprisingly, businesses also recognize the allure of Houston's offerings. Twenty-six companies on the Fortune 500 list call the Energy Capital of the World home. The total ranks third among U.S. metro areas. Aeronautic research is unsurpassed at NASA headquarters—the facility responsible for putting the first man on the moon—and Texas Medical Center remains the largest in the world with 47 highly lauded research and treatment institutions.

• Come. Live like a local for a few days and discover why Houston's mix of international appeal and Southern charm have captured the imagination of tastemakers the world over.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference is comprised of 16 institutions for the second consecutive fall. The league has grown from 10 members to 16 with the addition of eight schools from 2023 to 2024. Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado and Utah joined BYU, Houston, Cincinnati and UCF as new members since 2023. The eight new members joined Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas Tech, and West Virginia.

The Big 12 enters its 31st year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 92 team NCAA national championships, and nearly 800 individual national champions. The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

The Big 12 Conference matched its record-breaking number of selections from a year ago with nine teams selected for the postseason, which was highlighted Big 12 champion Arizona State earning the No. 4 seed in the College Football Playoff and a bye as part of the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Arizona State, picked to finish last by the league's media won the conference and made the Big 12's seventh appearance CFP. It was the Conference's 19th appearance in a CFP New Year's Six Bowl in the 11 years of the postseason structure.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with Microsoft and PayPal where Big 12 schools will use PayPal to modernize the distribution of institutional payments from universities to student-athletes in a new revenue-sharing model.

WILLIE FRITZ

Head Coach
Pittsburg State, 1983; Sam Houston, 1986
Third Season as Head Coach

• Willie Fritz, the back-to-back American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year who boasts 33 years of collegiate head coaching experience, was named the 16th head coach in University of Houston football history on Sunday, Dec. 3, 2023. The 2026 season will be his third with the Cougars and 34th overall.

• Fritz, who ranks second nationally among active FBS head coaches with 221 victories, helped the Cougars make a major leap in 2025, as Coach Fritz engineered the largest single-season turnaround in the country from 2024 to 2025, winning 10 games in Year 2 after winning four games in his first season at Houston. The season culminated in a #19 AFCA Coaches Poll ranking and a Kinder's Texas Bowl win over LSU.

• Fritz guided the Cougars to its first ranked road win since 2017 when the Cougars scored 24-unanswered points at #25 Arizona State just hours after the death of strength coach Kurt Hester.

• Three Cougars earned All-America honors in 2025, the most in a single season since 2009, with Tanner Koziol (PFSN, Phil Steele), Amare Thomas (Phil Steele) and Jacob Garza (Phil Steele) earning All-America accolades. Koziol and Thomas became the first set of offensive Cougars to earn All-America honors in the same season since 2009 and Garza became Houston's first long snapper to be named an All-American in school history. Koziol led FBS tight ends with 74 receptions and finished second in school history in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns by a Cougar tight end.

• Coach Fritz had his best first-year quarterback in Conner Weigman since becoming a coach at the NCAA level in 2025 as Weigman threw for 2,705 yards and 25 touchdowns, both single-season records under Coach Fritz as a first-year quarterback in his system. Weigman led Houston on five game-winning fourth quarter or overtime drives or comebacks during 2025 (Oregon State, Arizona, UCF, Baylor, LSU).

• Fritz proved he is a winner as he guided the Cougars to three wins in 2025 after going down 10+ points, and twice when trailing by 14+.

• In 2024, Fritz helped the Cougars earn victories in back-to-back weeks against the Big 12's top two preseason favorites during 2024, defeating Utah and #17/15 Kansas State. Houston's victory over the Wildcats marked its highest ranked win in seven seasons.

• At Tulane, Fritz led the Green Wave to consecutive American Athletic Conference Championship games between 2022-23. The Green Wave's 23 wins between 2022-23 ranked fourth nationally while the program's 15 conference wins were fifth in the country in that timeframe.

• The Shawnee Mission, Kan., native owns eight career 10-plus win seasons and seven conference championships, including the 2022 American Athletic Conference title. The 2023 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watch List honoree led Tulane to consecutive American Athletic Conference Championship games before arriving in Houston.

• Fritz's Tulane teams spent 19 weeks ranked inside the AP Top 25 in 2022-23, including topping out at #9 following a thrilling 46-45 Cotton Bowl victory against #8 USC on Jan. 10, 2023. The Green Wave appeared in the CFP Top 25 rankings in 11 of 12 polls (91.6%) between the 2022-23 seasons. Tulane's 11 weeks in the rankings in that time frame ranked as the 10th most nationally.

• Fritz has spent each of the last 31 seasons as a head coach at Blinn College (1993-96), Central Missouri (2007-09), Sam Houston (2010-13), Georgia Southern (2014-15) and Tulane (2016-23). During that stretch, he coached 73 players who were either NFL Draft selections or NFL free-agent signees.

• In 2022, Fritz led the Green Wave to complete the biggest turnaround season in FBS history, improving to 12-2 and a No. 9 final AP Poll ranking after finishing just 2-10 the previous season. The No. 9 finish was the highest final ranking since the program's undefeated 1998 season.

• As a result of his leadership during the storied 2022 season, Fritz was awarded both the Dodd Trophy and the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award. The Green Wave's appearance in the 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl marked the 16th bowl appearance in the 128-year history of the program.

• In the 2021 regular season, Fritz guided the Green Wave to a 2-10 record after Hurricane Ida forced the team to evacuate for a month. Overall, five of the team's 10 losses came by one score or less. Following the 2021 season, Tulane had four players that earned post-season recognition from the American Athletic Conference in Ryan Wright (First), Dorian Williams (Honorable Mention), Sincere Haynesworth (Honorable Mention) and Macon Clark (Honorable Mention). The program also had 12 players that earned selection by Phil Steele Magazine for its All-American Athletic Conference Team.

• In 2019, Fritz led the Green Wave to the best start to a season in over 20 years and came within one spot of cracking the top 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time over 20 years. The Green Wave also established a strong home field advantage under Fritz's direction in 2019, as they posted a 5-1 record inside Yulman Stadium. Tulane's 2019 unit featured an impressive rushing attack, which ranked 13th in the country, averaging 249.8 yards per game.

• In 2018, Fritz guided Tulane to its first bowl trip since 2013, a share of the American Athletic Conference title and just its sixth winning season in the last 37 years while facing the second toughest schedule among teams from the conference.

• The 2017 campaign saw Tulane finish the year with its highest win total since 2013 despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as nine of its opponents earned invitations to bowl games. Fritz earned his 200th victory as a head coach in 2017.

• In his two seasons at Georgia Southern, he led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first NCAA postseason bowl game with a berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl.

• Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

• Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. Georgia Southern was the first team in NCAA history to post an undefeated conference season in its first season at the Division I FBS level.

• Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston from 2010-13, leading the Bearkats to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA Division I Championship game appearances in 2011 and 2012 and a third straight NCAA playoff berth in 2013. While in Hunstville, Fritz was twice named the National Coach of the Year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012 while at Sam Houston State. In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) while more than 50 Bearkats student-athletes earned All-Southland Conference honors in his last four years, not including additional Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

• Fritz revitalized Central Missouri and guided the Mules to 11 winning seasons in 13 years. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranked Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's history. He was the only coach to win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons, and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time.

• In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 First-Team selections and 24 All-Americans.

• Fritz was inducted into the Central Missouri Athletics Hall of Fame on Feb. 11, 2017.

• Prior to his time at Central Missouri and Sam Houston State as a head coach, Fritz spent two different stints as an assistant coach with the Bearkats. He first served as a graduate assistant during the 1984 and 1985 seasons when he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. During that two-year stretch, Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship.

• He returned to Sam Houston State a second time in 1991 after spending four years at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas under legendary coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Foster's son Skip and the Red Ravens. During the 1990 season, Fritz served as the defensive coordinator where he helped guide the Red Ravens to a national title.

• When Fritz was brought back to Sam Houston State in 1991 under Ron Randleman as secondary and special teams coach, he instilled an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats'"block party"racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

• In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and an eight-win season launched Sam Houston State to the program's second appearance in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.
• Fritz departed Huntsville for a second time prior to the 1993 season for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

• From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers racked up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claimed two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

• One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

• Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-year starter at defensive back at Pittsburg State where he earned a bachelor's degree in 1983. While working as a graduate assistant during his first stint with Sam Houston from 1984-85, he earned his Master of Kinesiology in 1986.

• He and his wife Susan have three children, Wes, Lainie and Brooke, and three grandchildren, Grant, Enzo and Mia.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"I'm buying all the Willie Fritz stock."
– Mitch Light, The Athletic

"The Cougars can dream of winning the Big 12 and playing for a national championship thanks to Willie. You want hot? Houston gets a coach who turned Tulane from 2-10 to 23-4 the last two seasons – including an AAC title and New Year's Six bowl win."
– Dennis Dodd, CBS Sports

"Relationships still matter with high school coaches, and Fritz has seemingly wasted no time in building those connections. So much of recruiting is about effort, and when Fritz talks with a high school coach for 90 minutes at a time, that isn't easily forgotten. Throw in his track record on the field as a proven winner, and things could get fun down in Houston quickly."
– Grace Raynor, The Athletic

"Willie Fritz a maximizer. He's been that way at every single stop he's made as a college head coach over the past 30 years, and is well-positioned to do it again now for the University of Houston."
– Brandon Scott, Chron.com

"He's won everywhere and left every job better than when he took it over. That's the mark of a good coach."
– Mike Huesmann, Mike Farrell Sports

SLADE NAGLE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Slade Nagle, a 20-plus year coaching veteran who helped guide Tulane's resurgent offenses across eight seasons and most recently oversaw special teams/tight ends at LSU, was named University of Houston Football Offensive Coordinator on Dec. 5, 2024. The 2026 season will be his second with the Cougars.

• Under Head Coach Willie Fritz, Nagle coached Tulane tight ends from 2016-22 before taking over the reins as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2023. Nagle returned to coaching tight ends under Fritz in 2025 while also serving as the offensive coordinator.

• In Nagle's first season as offensive coordinator in 2025, the Cougars improved in every offensive category, improving from 128th to 60th nationally in total offense, 132nd to 55th in scoring offense, 119th to 40th in passing efficiency, 90th to 41st in rushing offense, 126th to 81st in passing offense 121st to 40th in fourth down conversion rate, 133rd to 14th in red zone offense and 72nd to 17th in time of possession.

• Nagle guided an offense that had two All-Americans, Tanner Koziol and Amare Thomas, for the first time since 2009 with the pair also earning All-Big 12 honors and both being named to the Biletnikoff Watch List.

• The former McNeese quarterback tutored junior quarterback Conner Weigman to a breakout and career defining season as Houston's new QB1 showcased his dual-threat athleticism totaling the seventh most touchdowns nationally, throwing for 25 touchdowns and rushing for 11 scores. Weigman was one four quarterbacks in FBS with 25+ passing touchdowns and 10+ rushing touchdowns in 2025.

• As the tight ends coach in 2025, Koziol paced all tight ends in FBS with 74 receptions, finished second with 727 receiving yards and third with six receiving touchdowns.
• As offensive coordinator in 2023, the Green Wave scored 20+ points in 11 of 12 regular season contests and eclipsed 30 points on six occasions as part of an 11-win regular season and perfect 8-0 mark in American Athletic Conference play. As quarterbacks coach, he tutored signal caller Michael Pratt, who was named American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year after ranking 15th nationally in passing efficiency (158.9), 22nd in points responsible for per game (14.7) and 23rd in yards per pass attempt (8.50).

• Following the 2023 season, the Green Wave matched a league high with four offensive players on the All-American Athletic Conference First Team. In total, seven Tulane offensive student-athletes earned All-Conference honors following the season, including redshirt freshman running back Makhi Hughes, who was selected as The American's Rookie of the Year.

• With a focus on being a balanced team in his eight seasons at Tulane, the Green Wave rushed for 21,168 yards and 219 touchdowns, ranking 12th and 15th, respectively, in the country. Tulane topped 5,000 yards of total offense five times (2023, '22, '21, '19, '18) – something the Green Wave accomplished just twice in the preceding 50 years. Tulane eclipsed 300 yards of total offense in 87 of 102 games (85.3%).

• From 2019-23, the Green Wave led The American in Pro Football Focus (PFF) rushing grade three times, ranked 12th nationally in rushing yards (12,808), 17th nationally in rushing touchdowns (134) and checked in at 22nd nationally in points scored (2,050). In 36 different games over that five-year span, Tulane rushed for 150+ yards and passed for 150+ yards – tied for the 18th most occurrences nationally.

• In 2024, Nagle's tight ends room played a key role in LSU's offensive prowess which included ranking eighth nationally in passing offense (315.0) and 12th in first downs (286). LSU junior tight end Mason Taylor topped all SEC tight ends and ranked fourth among Power Four tight ends with 4.6 receptions per game while checking in at ninth among Power Four tight ends with 558 receiving yards.

• Prior to Tulane, Nagle served as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator for four seasons at his alma mater, McNeese, and helped the team to a combined record of 33-13, including a pair of 10-win seasons and two Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoff appearances including a perfect 9-0 mark en route to a Southland Conference title and advanced to the FCS Playoffs in 2015.

• A 2001 graduate of McNeese, Nagle played for the Cowboys for three years from 1999-2001, leading the team to two appearances in the NCAA playoffs and to a SLC title. An All-Conference selection during his playing time, he completed his career as the school's seventh ranked performer in total offense (4,977 yards), sixth in passing yardage (4,596), fifth in passes attempted and completed (378 of 653) and fifth in touchdown passes (35). Nagle's career completion percentage of .578 is one of the best in school history. In 2001 he quarterbacked the Cowboys to the SLC title, completing 113 of 198 passes for 1,279 yards and 14 touchdowns. During his career he had a 19-8 won-loss record as the Cowboy starting quarterback.

• Nagle earned All-State and All-District (three times) honors at Barbe High where he set school records for passing.

• He signed with Clemson out of high school and played as a freshman before transferring to McNeese. His father, John, is a veteran football coach in the state on the college and high school level.

• Nagle is married to his wife Kirby.

AUSTIN ARMSTRONG

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Austin Armstrong, a rising star, who recently held the reins as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida from 2023-24, joined University of Houston Football in the same capacity on Dec. 14, 2024. The 2026 season will be his second with the Cougars.

• Armstrong, who was the youngest defensive coordinator in the Southeastern Conference at 31 upon his hire in 2023, has tutored 22 All-Conference or All-Conference freshman selections in his five seasons as defensive coordinator.

• In 10 seasons coaching, including nine at the FBS level, Armstrong has helped programs to six bowl appearances and three conference championship game appearances, highlighted by a 2019 Sugar Bowl victory and SEC Championship game appearance as Georgia's defensive quality control coach. That season, the 12-2 Bulldogs led the nation in rushing defense (74.6), scoring defense (12.6) and fourth-down conversion defense (.261).

• In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2025, Houston's defense ranked in the top 50 nationally in multiple statistical categories and performed best away from home. The Cougars defense ranked 27th nationally in the red zone, allowing just 14 touchdowns in 41 red zone stands, 38th in stopping the rush, 40th on first and third down, and 47th on fourth down.

• Armstrong helped develop senior linebacker Jalen Garner in his final season as a Cougar where Garner made his first start and started all 13 games. Garner finished second on the team with 77 tackles after being tied for the team lead entering the Texas Bowl.

• Four defensive Cougars earned All-Big 12 Second-Team honors in 2025, with both starting corners, Will James and Latrell McCutchin Sr., joining defensive linemen Carlos Allen Jr., and Eddie Walls III. The quartet were joined by Honorable Mention selections for Garner and defensive back Wrook Brown.

• In 2023, Armstrong took over a youthful Florida defense, highlighted by a combined 17 starts made by freshmen. That season, the Gators boasted a league-best three SEC All-Freshman league defenders and ranked No. 6 nationally in fourth down conversion defense (.308) and No. 11 in first downs defense (212). In his first season, Armstrong directed significant improvement on third down, elevating Florida 93 spots nationally. The Gators improved from No. 128 in third-down conversion defense (.497) in 2022 to No. 35 (.356) in 2023.

• Under Armstrong's leadership as defensive coordinator, his units have ranked in the Top 25 nationally for turnovers gained and the Top 35 for fourth-down conversion defense in three of the past four seasons.

• In 2024, Florida's defense ranked inside the Top 25 in five statistical categories including No. 7 in sacks per game (3.17), No. 7 in fumbles recovered (11), No. 12 in red zone defense (.737), No. 16 in turnovers gained (22) and No. 24 in tackles for loss per game (6.8). In 2023, the Gators ranked No. 6 in fourth down conversion defense (.308), No. 11 in first downs defense (212) and No. 35 in third-down conversion defense (.356).

• After taking over as the FBS's youngest defense coordinator at 28 years old, Armstrong led Southern Miss to two of its most dominant defensive seasons in school history. During the two-year stretch, the Golden Eagles were No. 4 nationally in defensive touchdowns (8), No. 15 in interceptions (28) and No. 16 in turnovers gained (45).

• Southern Miss leaned on its dominance up front in 2022, ranking No. 2 nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.3) and No. 4 in sacks per game (3.38). That season, seven Golden Eagles defenders earned All-Conference honors with the unit ranking No. 3 nationally in fourth down conversion defense (.231), No. 4 in defensive touchdowns (4), No. 7 in interceptions (17) and No. 24 in turnovers gained (22).

• In each season at Southern Miss, the Golden Eagles ranked inside the Top 25 in run-defense grade (Pro Football Focus). In 2021, Southern Miss ranked inside the Top 25 nationally in six statistical categories including No. 2 in first downs defense (197), No. 4 in fumbles recovered (13), No. 6 in redzone defense (.703), No. 7 in defensive touchdowns (4), No. 15 in turnovers gained (24) and No. 24 in passing yards allowed per game (202.0).

• Armstrong spent three seasons at Louisiana, including the 2020 season as inside linebackers coach. That season, the Ragin' Cajuns reached as high as No. 17 in the AP poll while holding three Top-Five statistical national rankings at the end of the regular season, including No. 2 in passes intercepted (15), No. 3 in defensive passing efficiency (96.27) and No. 4 in passing yards allowed per game (166.9), in addition to ranking No. 31 in total defense (347.8).

• He also served as a defensive graduate assistant coach with the Ragin' Cajuns for the 2017 and 2018 seasons. Louisiana claimed its first of back-to-back Sun Belt Conference West Division championships in 2018, played in the Sun Belt's inaugural football championship game and earned a berth in the AutoNation Cure Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

• Prior to his first stint in Lafayette, Armstrong was an assistant defensive line coach at West Georgia (Div. II) for the 2016 season. He earned his bachelor's degree from Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., in 2014, after playing linebacker for the Hawks for four seasons.

• Armstrong is married to the former Tiffany Taylor.

SHAWN BELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/QUARTERBACKS/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Shawn Bell joined University of Houston Football in January 2024 as its quarterbacks coach/passing coordinator. He was promoted to assistant head coach ahead of the 2026 season which will be his third with the Cougars.

• In his second season at Houston, the former Baylor quarterback tutored junior quarterback Conner Weigman to a breakout and career defining season as Houston's new QB1 showcased his dual-threat athleticism totaling the seventh most touchdowns nationally, throwing for 25 touchdowns and rushing for 11 scores. Weigman was one four quarterbacks in FBS with 25+ passing touchdowns and 10+ rushing touchdowns in 2025. Weigman's 36 touchdowns were the second most in the Big 12 while his 11 rushing touchdowns were tied for the lead among Big 12 quarterbacks. Weigman ranked fifth in passing touchdowns (25) and seventh in passing yards (2,705) in the Big 12 in 2025.

• During his first season with the Cougars, Bell tutored sophomore quarterback Zeon Chriss who finished the season as one of eight Power Four underclassmen QBs with 750+ passing yards and 350+ rushing yards. Chriss's 63.8 completion % ranked 10th among Power Four underclassmen QBs (min. 100 attempts) while on the ground, his 35 missed tackled forced rushing ranked fifth among Power Four QBs.

• Chriss finished 11 of 11 passing while leading the Cougars to their highest ranked win in seven seasons with a 24-19 victory over #17/15 Kansas State on Nov. 2. Chriss became the 23rd FBS quarterback since 1996 to complete all passes in a game (min. 10 attempts) and first Houston quarterback to accomplish the feat.

• The former Baylor standout signal caller started as an analyst with the Bears in 2017 before being elevated a handful of times before being named quarterbacks coach in January 2021. The Dave Campbell's Texas Football 40 Under 40 honoree (June 2021) spent the 2021-23 seasons as quarterbacks Coach.

• Bell helped tutor quarterback Blake Shapen, who started 23 games across three seasons. Shapen's 5,574 career passing yards and 36 passing touchdowns each rank seventh in school history – one spot behind Bell – in Baylor career history. Shapen complete 63.7 percent of his passes, ranking third in program history. His 479 career completions ranked fifth in Baylor history.

• In 2022, Bell broke in a new starting quarterback for the second consecutive year leading the unit, helping Blake Shapen develop into an offensive weapon. Shapen threw for the ninth-most yards in Baylor single-season history, completing 63.3 percent of his passes, the fifth-best total in school annals. He ranked second in Baylor career history by completing 65 percent of his pass attempts. Shapen threw for 18 TDs and sported a 137.7 passing efficiency mark on the year.

• During his first season at the helm of the quarterback room in 2021, Bell helped Gerry Bohanon finish the season with 27 total touchdowns, which tied for the second-most in the Big 12 and earned him a spot as an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention. Bohanon was also named a semifinalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award.

• Bell helped Shapen, then a redshirt freshman, guide the team to a pair of wins in Bohanon's absence, including the Big 12 Championship game. Against Oklahoma State, Shapen went 23-for-28 for 180 yards and 3 touchdowns, including a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium college record 17-straight completions in the first half. Shapen was named the Big 12 Championship's Most Outstanding Performer.

• As the tight ends coach in 2020, Ben Sims recorded the most touchdowns by a Baylor tight end since 2007.

• The former record-setting Baylor quarterback returned to his alma mater following 10 seasons on the sidelines at the high school level, the last eight as head coach at Cedar Ridge, Magnolia West and Clifton.

• Bell spent the 2016 season at Cedar Ridge HS in Round Rock, Texas, where he was named District 13-6A Coach of the Year after leading the Raiders to an 11-1 mark and the school's first district championship.

• From 2010 to 2015, Bell was head coach at Magnolia West High School in Magnolia, Texas and led the Mustangs to the postseason every year with a record of 44-27.

• His first head coaching stint was in 2009 at Clifton (Texas) High School. In 2008, Bell worked under his father, central Texas coaching icon and long-time China Spring Head Coach Mark Bell, on the CSHS staff. He began his coaching career in 2007 working with the receivers at Stony Point HS in Round Rock.

• Bell rewrote the passing records during his time as Baylor's quarterback from 2003-06, owning 28 school records at the conclusion of his career. His 5,666 career yards and 38 career TDs currently stand as the fifth most all-time.

• He was a 2006 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention as a senior. Bell's legacy includes an unforgettable Baylor highlight when he threw consecutive completions to Dominique Zeigler for a touchdown and game-winning 2-point conversion in overtime to defeat No. 16 Texas A&M, 35-34, in 2004 in just his third career start.

• Bell also was a 2006 NFF National Honor Society selection, two-time Baylor Dean's list recipient, two-time First-Team Academic All-Big 12 honoree and eight-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. He graduated in May 2006 with a degree in education and earned a master's degree in sports management in 2007.

• Bell was an all-state QB under his father at China Spring High School and finished his prep career ranked third all-time in Texas history with 8,437 passing yards.

• He and his wife Hali are the parents of two sons, Cannon and Braxton, and a daughter, Saydi. Shawn's brother, Brian, serves as the wide receivers coach for the Cougars.

JAMES ROSS III

EDGES / DEFENSIVE RUN-GAME COORDINATOR | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• James Ross III joined University of Houston Football in January 2024 as its Defensive Ends/Outside Linebackers Coach. In January 2025, he was named Outside Edges & Run-Game Coordinator. The 2026 season will be his third with the Cougars.

• In 2025, Ross tutored a second-straight Cougar edge defender to All-Conference honors with Eddie Walls III earning All-Big 12 Second Team honors in his lone season at Houston. Walls led the Cougars with 7.0 sacks and 11.5 TFLs while assisting Houston's run-stop core with a 6.2% run-stop rate, top 100 nationally among edge rushers. Walls ranked fifth in the Big 12 in sacks and sixth in TFLs.

• In 2024, Ross III's unit played a key role in a Houston defense which ranked 26th nationally and 18th in the Power Four in total defense (324.8). He helped tutor defensive end Keith Cooper Jr. who was named Second Team All-Big 12 Conference during his first season in the league. Cooper Jr. finished his season ranked ninth among Power Four edge defenders in QB hits.

• The Cougars held opponents under 100 yards rushing five times, ranking 21st nationally and second in the Big 12, while limiting the opposition to one or no rushing scores in nine different contests. Through the air, Houston's 2,266 passing yards allowed were its fewest in a non-COVID season (eight games played) in 30 years (2,160 yards in 1994).

• At Tulane, Ross III helped direct one of the nation's top defenses. Tulane led The American Athletic Conference in passes intercepted (17) and turnovers forced (25). The Green Wave's 25 turnovers gained entering bowl season ranked second nationally and marked the program's most in seven seasons (27 in 2016).

• The team finished ranked inside the Top 30 nationally in eight statistical categories including turnovers gained (25; 2nd) interceptions (17; 3rd), rushing defense (93.5; 7th), scoring defense (18.9; 19th), fourth-down conversion percentage defense (42.9%; 24th), team sacks/game (2.62; 26th), tackles for loss (6.3; 30th) and fumbles recovered (8; 30th).

• Prior to Tulane, Ross spent the 2022 season as outside linebackers coach at Cincinnati. There, he was responsible for creating defensive game plans and coordinating meetings with his position group in addition to assisting with the evaluation, recruitment and retention of student-athletes.

• He joined the Bearcats from Hope College where he served as the Flying Dutchmen's linebackers coach in 2021 before being promoted to defensive coordinator.

• Ross was a three-year starter at linebacker at Michigan from 2012 to 2015. He also spent three seasons as a Graduate Assistant with the Wolverines from 2018 to 2020.

• Ross appeared in 50 games for the Wolverines, making 21 starts and collecting four letters. He finished his career with 188 tackles and 16.5 TFLs. The Orchard Park, Mich., native was named to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team by ESPN in 2012.

• Ross started coaching following a brief stint with the San Diego Chargers in 2016, who signed the linebacker out of college.
• As a graduate assistant, Ross helped Michigan coach linebackers and mentored five NFL players, including Pittsburgh Steelers First Round pick Devin Bush, New England Patriots second-rounder Josh Uche, Cameron McGrone, Khaleke Hudson and Jordan Glasgow.

• As the linebackers coach at Hope, the Flying Dutchmen led the MIAA in scoring defense (14.5 points per game) and ranked No. 2 in total defense (291.7 yards per game) in 2021. Senior linebacker Jeremiah Purnell collected second-team all-conference accolades under Ross' tutelage.

• Ross and his wife, Omni, are both from The Metropolitan Detroit area. They have two sons, Jayce and Jax and a daughter, Jordyn.

OSCAR GILES

DEFENSIVE LINE | THIRD SEASON (SEVENTH OVERALL, THIRD STINT AT HOUSTON)

Coaching Accomplishments

• Oscar Giles joined the University of Houston as its defensive line coach in February 2024. The 2026 season will mark his 28th as a college coach and enters his seventh overall season at Houston in his third tour with the Cougars after previous stints on staff during 2003-04 and 2015-16.

• During 27 seasons as a full-time college coach, Giles has helped coach teams to 20 bowl games including a 2005 Rose Bowl Game title, 2006 Rose Bowl Game/BCS National Championship, 2010 BCS National Championship appearance, 2009 Fiesta Bowl title, 2015 Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl Championship and 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl title.

• As of February 2024, Giles has tutored 28 players who reached the National Football League. Those 28 standouts, which have included nine Top-3 round selections, have amassed nearly $383 million in career earnings. During his time at Wyoming (2022-23), Texas (2005-13; 2017-20), Houston (2003-04; 2015-16) and SMU (2000-02), Giles mentored 49 All-Conference honorees, six All-Americans, three Big 12 Conference Defensive Players of the Year, three Big 12 Defensive Linemen of the Year and one Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. He has also coached defensive linemen who have won the Bronko Nagurski Award, Lombardi Award and Ted Hendricks Award.

• In his second season under Coach Fritz's squad, Giles' defensive line room continued its growth with an All-Big 12 selection and elite run-stop abilities. Defensive lineman Carlos Allen Jr. earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors and led all FBS interior linemen in tackles while also leading the team in tackles (80). Allen's 8.3% run-stop rate ranked top 20 nationally, while fellow interior lineman Khalil Laufau's 5.6% run-stop rate ranked tied for 75th, making Houston one of 17 schools with at least two interior defensive linemen with top 75 run-stop rates. In 2024, the Cougars held opponents under 100 yards rushing five times (21st nationally, 2nd in the Big 12), limited opponents to 14 rushing touchdowns (25th in the Power Four), a sharp turnaround from 27 rushing scores allowed in 2023, and held opponents to just 3.9 yards per carry, the second-lowest mark by the Cougars in the last seven seasons.

• Giles joined Houston from Wyoming where he served as associate head coach, head freshman coach and defensive run-game coordinator while coaching the Cowboys' defensive tackles and nose tackles in 2022-23. He mentored a pair of All-Conference selections and helped the Cowboys to consecutive bowl appearances, including the program's first nine-win season since 1996 in 2023. In 2022, Wyoming ranked second in the Mountain West and 22nd nationally with 2.77 sacks per game.

• Giles' defensive lines played a critical role in one of the most dominant two-year spans in Houston history between 2015-16. The Cougars ranked inside the Top 10 nationally in rushing defense both seasons, racking up a combined 75 sacks which ranked 10th in the FBS. Houston's 22 wins during the two-year stretch ranked fifth in the country, including a 2015 Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl title with a dominant 38-24 victory over #9/8 Florida State.

• In 2016, defensive tackle Ed Oliver, whom Giles recruited and coached, was named Scout's National Freshman of the Year and sparked a Cougar defense that ranked 14th nationally in tackles for loss per game (7.7). Giles also coached defensive end Cameron Malveaux (NFL free agent, 2017), Tyus Bowser (Second Round selection, 89 games and 23 starts with the Baltimore Ravens from 2017-22) and recruited wide receiver Marquez Stevenson (Sixth-Round selection, 2021 NFL Draft). During 2003, Houston earned its first bowl berth in seven seasons and produced its most conference victories in seven seasons.

• For 13 seasons at Texas (2005-13; 2017-20), Giles developed some of the nation's top defensive linemen. In his first stint as defensive ends/special teams coach, 16 defensive ends and 13 special teams standouts were named All-Big 12 Conference. He developed Brian Orakpo from the 2005 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year into the 2008 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and the 13th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft and a four-time Pro Bowl selection. In 2009, Texas led the nation in rushing defense (72.36) and ranked fifth in sacks per game (3.0) en route to a BCS National Championship appearance.

• In 2013, Jackson Jeffcoat won the Hendricks Award, earned First Team All-America honors and was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. In his return stint (2017-20), the Longhorns won four consecutive bowl games and finished ranked inside the Top 25 three times, with seven defensive linemen earning All-Big 12 honors and a Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year in three of four seasons, Poona Ford (2017), Charles Omenihu (2018) and Joseph Ossai (2020), who also earned consensus All-America honors.

• In Giles' one season at Louisiana Tech in 2014, the Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) and finished fourth in tackles for loss per game (8.1); defensive tackle Vernon Butler became a First-Round selection in the 2016 NFL Draft.

• A three-year starter at Texas, Giles earned AP All-SWC honors as a senior and was part of the 1990 SWC team and Cotton Bowl appearance. A semifinalist for the Outland Trophy, he totaled 22.0 career sacks and nine career fumble recoveries. He played professionally with the Atlanta Falcons and in the Canadian Football League from 1994-97, winning the 1996 Toronto Argonauts Grey Cup Championship.

• Giles and his wife Kim have two daughters, Olivia and Kourtney.

PJ HALL

SAFETIES | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• PJ Hall, a former Tulane Football standout student-athlete, joined University of Houston Football as its Cornerbacks Coach on Monday, Feb. 3, 2025. The 2026 season will be his second with the Cougars. Hall transitioned to the back of the secondary to work with the safeties in 2026.

• In 2025, the Cougars' cornerbacks posted career-best seasons while helping limit opposing teams passing game plans. Hall tutored both starting cornerbacks to All-Big 12 Conference Second-Team selections, the first season Houston had a pair of All-Conference cornerbacks since 2016.

• Sophomore cornerback Will James posted one of the best seasons by a Cougar defensive back in over 10 years when he became the first Cougar DB since 2015 to record 3+ INTs and 4+ TFLs in the same season. James also earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week following a performance where he snagged two interceptions while adding a forced fumble and five tackles.

• On the other side of the field, senior Latrell McCutchin Sr., had the 17th fewest targets across the Big 12 yet the fourth-most pass breakups (10). Along with James and senior Zelmar Vedder, the trio of corners posted 7+ PBUs each, becoming the first Cougar trio of cornerbacks with 7+ PBUs since 2022.

• Hall spent the 2024 season as Defensive Assistant at Tarleton State as the Texans became the fifth team in the history of the FCS Playoffs to win their first playoff game at the FCS level in their first year eligible after reclassifying from NCAA Division II. Tarleton State finished 10-4 overall and 6-2 in United Athletic Conference play, reaching double-digit wins for the sixth time in program history. They ended the season ranked No. 12 in the AFCA FCS Coaches Poll and No. 13 in the Stats Perform FCS Top 25 Poll.

• In its first season at the Division I level, Tarleton State ranked fourth in the FCS in turnovers gained (29), fifth in interceptions (18), eighth in fumbles recovered (11), 17th in team passing efficiency defense (117.98) and 27th in defensive touchdowns (2). The Texans paced the UAC in Pro Football Focus (PFF) coverage grade (87.0).

• Hall came to Tarleton State from Baylor where he spent three seasons (2021-23) as Graduate Assistant, working specifically with the safeties. During his time with the Bears, Hall helped tutor four safeties who went on earn to All-Big 12 Conference honors.

• During 2023, Baylor ranked third in the Big 12 Conference in first downs defense (241) and forth in both red zone defense (.800) and defensive touchdowns (2).

• Baylor paced the Big 12 in PFF coverage grade at 84.0 during 2022. That season, the Bears ranked second in the Big 12 in passing yards allowed (222.8), third in total defense (371.0), fourth in scoring defense (26.8) and fourth in interceptions (13). Baylor safeties Devin Lemear and Al Walcott earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors with the former earning votes for Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

• During 2021, the Bears ranked second in the league in coverage grade (77.3). That season, Baylor ranked third nationally in interceptions (19), 10th in scoring defense (18.3), 13th in defensive touchdowns (3), 23rd in third down conversion percentage defense (.343) and 26th in team passing efficiency defense (121.54). Individually, safeties Christian Morgan and JT Woods were tabbed All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.

• Hall came to Baylor after a short time at UAB, working as their defensive graduate assistant from February to May of 2021.

• The former safety played 47 games across four seasons under Fritz at Tulane from 2016-19, totaling 139 tackles, three interceptions, 23 passes defended, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one touchdown. The Hoover, Ala., native earned his Bachelor of Science in Information Technology as well as his Master of Professional Studies (MPS) in Health and Wellness Management.

MARCUS TRICE

CORNERBACKS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Marcus Trice was named University of Houston Football Cornerbacks Coach in December 2025. The 2026 season will be his first with the Cougars.

• Trice arrives in Houston fresh off a great season at Stephen F. Austin, where he helped guide the Lumberjacks to the Quarterfinals of the 2025 FCS Playoffs – the program's best postseason finish since 2009. Under his tutelage, SFA's defense was a driving force behind an 11-win FCS campaign that included a season-opening matchup against Houston and a perfect 7-0 mark at home.

• Trice's ability to develop talent showed up clearly in the numbers. Three Lumberjack defensive backs earned All-Southland Defense honors in 2025, with Charles Demmings and Jalen Mayo claiming All-SLC Defense First-Team recognition and Aaron Sears landing on the Second Team. Mayo emerged as one of the premier cover corners in the country, posting an 88.4 PFF Coverage Grade that ranked eighth nationally among all FCS cornerbacks.

• Over his final two seasons, SFA's secondary intercepted 31 passes across 26 games – including 17 picks in 2024 (seventh nationally) and 14 in 2025 (14th in the FCS). Serving as Defensive Recruiting Coordinator and overseeing the D-Pass Game/Cornerbacks room, Trice built a pipeline of ball-hawking defenders, guiding the Lumberjacks to 51 total interceptions and two pick-six touchdowns across his four seasons at SFA.

• Before his time at SFA, Trice spent four years as a Texas high school coach, including two seasons as Co-Defensive Coordinator at Lovejoy.

• Trice's coaching journey began at the collegiate level as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 2017, giving him an early foundation in Power Five program structure and preparation.

• Trice starred at North Texas, capping his college career with a senior season in 2013 that saw him rack up 91 tackles, five interceptions and nine pass breakups across 13 games as the Mean Green went 9-4. He was a 2013 First Team All-Conference USA Defensive Back, the Conference USA Defensive Back of the Year, and Co-Special Teams Player of the Year.

• Over his 52-game collegiate career, Trice compiled 166 tackles, seven interceptions and 12 pass breakups.

• Trice married his wife Bree in August 2026 and he has a son Malcolm.

JORDY JOSEPH

RUNNING BACKS | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Jordy Joseph joined University of Houston Football in January 2024 as its running backs coach. The 2026 season will be his third with the Cougars. Joseph, who spent five seasons working for Head Coach Willie Fritz at Tulane, joined Houston following three seasons at Southern Miss.

• In his second season at Houston, Joseph earned 35 Under 35 honors and coached senior running back Dean Connors to one of the best seasons by a running back in recent Houston history. Connors rushed for 977 yards, the most by a Houston running back since 2014 and the 10th most since 1996. Connors finished the year with 254 receiving yards, fourth most on the team and became the first Cougar running back since 2008 to record 900+ rushing yards and 250+ receiving yards in a single season.

• During 2024, Houston's youthful running backs room rushed for 201 more yards than a season prior. Three of Houston's top four backs were freshmen including redshirt freshman Re'Shaun Sanford II who paced the Cougars with 444 rushing yards and was one of five FBS freshmen with 400+ rushing yards and 150+ receiving yards on the season.

• Houston and Louisville were the only two programs nationally to have three freshman running backs produce 150+ all-purpose yards during 2024. J'Marion Burnette's 116 rushing yards after contact led all Big 12 true freshmen backs. DJ Butler's 76.8 PFF run grade was second among Big 12 true freshmen backs (min. 15 rushes) and his 4.88 yards after contact per attempt ranked third among Power Four true freshman backs (min. 15 rushes).

• Meanwhile, junior Stacy Sneed finished third on the team 308 rushing yards. Sneed rushed for 5.0+ yards per carry for a third straight season, becoming the first UH back with 5.0+ yards/carry (min. 45 carries) in three straight years since Kenneth Farrow in four straight (2012-15).

• At Southern Miss, Joseph helped guide Frank Gore Jr. to record-setting success. Gore Jr. rushed for 1,482 yards in 2022 – the most for the program in 15 seasons (Damion Fletcher; 2007). Gore averaged 6.06 yards per play (23rd in the nation) and 106.3 yards per game (16th in the nation). In the LendingTree Bowl against Rice, Gore broke the NCAA bowl game rushing record with a 328-yard performance.

• That season, Joseph's group totaled 1,718 yards on the ground, an average of 139.4 yards per game, and accounted for 14 rushing touchdowns on the year. The running back room also hauled in 40 passes for 371 yards and a touchdown. Joseph spent the 2023 season as quarterbacks coach.

• During his first year with the Golden Eagles, Joseph oversaw Gore Jr., who led the team in rushing with 801 yards on 179 carries while earning All-Conference USA Honorable Mention. His rushing yards were the most by a Southern Miss running back in the last four seasons. Redshirt freshman Dajon Richard ended the year with back-to-back 100-yard rushing games of his own to give the Golden Eagles a total of four during the year.

• In 2021, Southern Miss transitioned into a "SuperBack" offense after top Golden Eagle quarterbacks were injured. Over the final three games, the Golden Eagles enjoyed two of their top three rushing outputs, averaging 214.3 yards per contest over that span. Golden Eagle running backs also threw for 215 yards on 20-of-28 passing with four touchdown passes and only two interceptions.

• Joseph spent the 2016-20 seasons on Tulane's staff following a five-year playing career with the Green Wave. After spending his first four seasons as a walk-on quarterback, Joseph earned a scholarship as a senior.

• He spent the 2018-20 seasons as an offensive analyst. During the three-season stretch, Tulane ranked eighth nationally in rushing first downs (435), ninth in rushing yards (8,632) and 10th in rushing touchdowns (94). The Green Wave's 1,195 points and 15,811 total yards ranked 21st and 26th in the FBS, respectively. Tulane logged 21 games with 200+ rushing yards (10th nationally), 15 games with 250+ rushing yards (7th nationally) and 10 games with 300+ rushing yards (8th nationally).

• In 2020, Tulane paced The American and ranked 17th nationally with 217.1 rushing yards per game. The Green Wave's 32 rushing scores ranked seventh nationally while its 5.1 yards per rush checked in at 22nd in the country. Tulane's six contests with 200+ yards rushing ranked 10th nationally.

• In 2019, the Green Wave finished the season ranked 11th in the nation in rushing offense (243.2), 22nd in total offense (449.3) and 30th in scoring offense (33.1). Joseph helped the Olive and Blue rush for over 200 yards in nine games in 2019, ranking seventh nationally, and over 300 yards four times, ranking eighth nationally.

• The Tulane offense set the program record in rushing yards at 3,162 yards in 2019. The offense ranked second in program history in rushing yards per game (243.2), rushing touchdowns (33) and rushing first downs (166).

• Through Joseph's assistance, Tulane's rushing attack once again proved to be one of the nation's best as the Green Wave averaged 218.2 yards per game, which ranked 23rd nationally.

• Joseph spent the 2016-17 seasons as the Green Wave's offensive graduate assistant while also assisting with recruiting. In 2017, Joseph played a major role in the team's 2018 recruiting class, as he helped Tulane secure one of the top recruiting classes in The American.

• Tulane's 2018 signing class featured three four-star recruits and 18 three-star prospects. The class also featured individuals from eight different states, including eight from the state of Louisiana.

• As a quarterback at Tulane (2011-15), the two-year letterwinner completed 47 of 92 passes (51.1%) for 620 yards and six touchdowns and three interceptions in 11 career games with two starts. He served as a backup during the final portion of his senior season before being thrust into duty in starts vs. Memphis and against Tulsa.

• A native of New Iberia, La., Joseph was a four-year letterman at New Iberia High School where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a combined 25-17 record while earning three trips to the state playoffs.

• Joseph earned his bachelor's degree in finance while also earning his Master of Management as well in 2016. He also earned a master's in liberal arts from Tulane.

• He is married to his wife LaMicha Jackson. They welcomed their first child, Elle, in 2025.

EMAN NAGHAVI

OFFENSIVE LINE | FOURTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Houston-area native and 15-year college football coaching veteran Eman Naghavi joined University of Houston Football as its co-offensive coordinator/run game coordinator on Jan. 28, 2023. The 2026 season will be his fourth at Houston where he will serve as the offensive line coach.

• For the second-straight year in 2025, Naghavi (pronounced ee-MAHN nuh-GAH-vee) led an offensive line with four new starters with the line gelling to the point where Houston improved in every offensive category, improving from 128th to 60th nationally in total offense, 132nd to 55th in scoring offense, 119th to 40th in passing efficiency, 90th to 41st in rushing offense, 126th to 81st in passing offense 121st to 40th in fourth down conversion rate, 133rd to 14th in red zone offense and 72nd to 17th in time of possession.

• Naghavi tutored junior McKenzie Agnello earned AP All-Bowl Team honors following the Texas Bowl where Agnello played all 87 snaps, did not allow a pressure, hurry, hit or sack on his way to posting a game-high 87.0 pass block grade in the game against LSU. Agnello's 87.0 pass block grade was the 19th best nationally during bowl week (non-CFP games).

• In 2024, Naghavi reunited with Head Coach Willie Fritz, serving as offensive line coach for the second straight season with the Cougars. The Katy, Texas, native guided an offensive line which returned just one starter for the first time in at least 20 years.

• The 2024 Cougars were led by Peyton Dunn's 85.9 pass-block grade (PFF) which ranked fourth among Big 12 guards. Dunn did not permit a quarterback hit in 11 of 12 games. Starting left tackle David Ndukwe permitted just one sack in 227 opportunities. Jake Wiley, who started all 12 games at right tackle, did not allow a quarterback hit until final game of season and committed no penalties in 11 of 12 games.

• In Naghavi's first season at Houston in 2023, Naghavi tutored 2024 NFL Second Round Draft Pick offensive tackle Patrick Paul. Paul's elite five-year career at Houston included a 90.2 pass block grade, the fourth-highest among NFL Draft-eligible offensive linemen, according to Pro Football Focus (PFF).

• Paul became Houston's highest drafted offensive player since wide receiver Donnie Avery was taken with the 33rd overall pick (Second Round) in 2008.

• The offensive tackle earned All-America status by multiple publications including Second-Team honors from The Athletic and ESPN. The First-Team All-Big 12 Conference honoree boasted the nation's best pass block grade among tackles (91.5), permitting just one sack in 469 opportunities.

• Naghavi played an integral role in Tulane's 12-2 season during 2022 that included an American Athletic Conference championship and Cotton Bowl victory over #10 USC. The Green Wave's offensive ranked fifth nationally in fewest offensive penalties, No. 12 in rushing touchdowns and No. 19 in scoring offense.

• In the Cotton Bowl, the Green Wave rushed for 305 yards on 34 rushes for four touchdowns alongside an average of 9.0 yards per carry. Three Tulane offensive linemen earned All-Conference recognition including two first-team honorees.

• The Katy, Texas, native is a former team captain and 2003 state champion at Katy High School. He went on to become an All-American offensive lineman at McNeese State and has worked under coaches Mack Brown, Charlie Strong, Shawn Elliot, Matt Viator and most recently, Willie Fritz.

• Naghavi spent the 2021 season at Georgia State, helping the Panthers to their most successful season in school history, highlighted by a program-best eight victories and first-ever win over a Top 25 opponent while developing two All-Sun Belt Conference offensive linemen. Georgia State finished 6-2 in conference play and capped its season with a Camellia Bowl victory.

• During a three-year period at ULM, the Warhawks finished in the top three in the Sun Belt for yards per play in three consecutive seasons. In 2017, ULM ranked No. 25 nationally in scoring offense.

• Naghavi spent two seasons as offensive line coach at his alma mater, McNeese State. In 2015, he tutored three All-Conference linemen, including one All-American, while 2016, he also served as recruiting coordinator.

• The stint was the second at McNeese after coaching the Cowboys' offensive tackles and tight ends in 2011-12. In both of those seasons, McNeese ranked second in the Southland Conference in rushing offense, and he helped mentor four All-Conference linemen.

• He spent two seasons as an offensive line assistant at Texas under Brown (2013) and Strong (2014). During his tenure with the Longhorns, Naghavi helped develop All-Big 12 Conference linemen Trey Hopkins (First Team) and Donald Hawkins (Second Team) in 2013 while also working with the tight ends.

• Naghavi was a three-time All-Conference offensive lineman at McNeese from 2005-08, where he helped lead the Cowboys to an undefeated regular season and Southland Conference title in 2007. He named a 2008 FCS All-American by the Associated Press and the Sports Network. In addition, he earned all-Louisiana honors in 2008 and was a two-time SLC All-Academic selection (2007-08).

• During his four years on the offensive line, McNeese led the league in rushing offense twice (2007-08), total offense twice (2007-08) and scoring offense three times (2006-08).

• Naghavi earned his bachelor's in business administration in 2008 and master's in exercise physiology in 2012, both from McNeese. He and his wife, Julie, have three daughters: Ryan, Austin and Mason.

BRIAN BELL

WIDE RECEIVERS | FIRST SEASON (THIRD ON STAFF)

Coaching Accomplishments

• Brian Bell joined University of Houston Football in January 2024 as its Offensive Analyst. In December 2025, Bell was promoted to Wide Receivers Coach in December 2025 ahead of the Kinder's Texas Bowl. The 2026 season will be his third with the program and first as position coach. Bell joined Houston after two seasons as Baylor's Quality Control Coach for Defensive Analysis.

• Bell was promoted to Wide Receivers coach ahead of the Cougars Texas Bowl appearance against LSU where he served as the Wide Receivers coach and as the assistant to himself while also serving as the signaler from the sideline.

• In Houston's Texas Bowl win over LSU, eight different Cougars caught passes for 230 total receiving yards while star receiver Amare Thomas caught a pair of touchdown passes.

• Bell helped tutor Thomas in his first season in Scarlet and White becoming the first Houston receiver with 10+ touchdown receptions since 2022. Thomas posted three 100-yard receiving games and caught multiple touchdown passes in three additional games.

• With a new-look wide receivers room in 2024, the Cougars spread the ball around to eight different receivers including five in their first seasons at Houston. The Cougars were led by junior Stephon Johnson whose 8.3 yards after catch per reception ranked second among Big 12 wideouts.

• His move to UH reunited Bell with his former Sam Houston Head Coach, Willie Fritz. From 2010-13, with Fritz at the helm, Bell quarterbacked the Bearkats to a school-record 39 victories including consecutive NCAA Division I FCS Championship Games. He finished his career as the program's career leader in passing yards (8,655), completions (621) and touchdown passes (84).

• Prior to joining Baylor, Bell was the head coach of China Spring High School's football program from 2018 to 2021. He was promoted to head coach after serving as an assistant coach since 2016.

• In 2021, Bell led China Spring to its first state championship since 1978, doing so by capturing the Class 4A Division II state final with a 31-7 victory over Gilmer. Bell compiled a 37-16 record in four seasons as head coach of his alma mater after succeeding his father, Mark.

• Bell led the program to the playoffs in each of his four seasons. China Spring went 11-2 in 2020 including three straight wins over Top 10 foes to open the playoffs. He was named the Waco Tribune-Herald's Super Centex Coach of the Year following the season.

• He served as a graduate assistant for Georgia Southern in 2015, helping the Eagles go 9-4 including a 6-2 mark in Sun Belt Conference play en route to defeating Bowl Green, 58-27, to capture the GoDaddy Bowl for the program's first bowl victory.

• Prior to his time at Georgia Southern, Bell served as the wide receivers coach at Magnolia West High School in 2014.

• A native of China Spring, Texas, Bell is married to Taylor Bell. They have two children, Grayson and Tatum. Brian graduated from Sam Houston State University in 2013 with his bachelor's degree.

CHRIS COUCH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Chris Couch reunites with Head Coach Willie Fritz in 2025 as Houston's Special Teams Coordinator following three years at Florida as the GameChanger Coordinator where his role focused on special teams. The 2026 season will be Couch's second at Houston.

• A native of Milledgeville, Ga., Couch spent the 2021 season with Billy Napier at Louisiana as UL's special teams coordinator and the director of quality control & analytics.

• In his first season at Houston, Couch mentored one of Houston's greatest kickers in program history, Ethan Sanchez, who made the second-most field goals in a single season with 20 made place kicks in 2025.

• Sanchez, a Lou Groza Award semifinalist, earned Phil Steel Magazine All-Big 12 Conference as a kicker and was a three-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week following game winning field goals against Oregon State, Arizona and UCF. Sanchez's five field goals against Colorado were the second-most in a game by a Cougar and he posted five multi-field goal games and was one of six FBS kickers with two or more 4+ field goal games.

• In 2024, Couch helped guide Florida to a late-season charge, winning the last four games of the season to finish with an 8-5 record overall, with victories over No. 21 LSU, No. 9 Ole Miss, Florida State and Tulane in the 16th Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl. The Gators were one of just unranked six teams in the nation to post multiple top-25 wins on the year.

• Couch helped Florida to a strong 2024 season on special teams where the Gators special teams unit ranked second in the nation in both the ESPN SP+ and FEI Special Teams rankings. The Gators also tied for the national lead in fewest blocked kicks and blocked punts allowed, ranked 11th in net punting (42.37) and 18th in punt returns (13.36).

• Individually, Rocco Underwood won the 2024 Mannelly Award for the best long snapper in the nation and earned Second-Team All-America accolades from the AFCA and Second-Team All-SEC honors, while punter Jeremy Crawshaw was named a Reese's Senior Bowl All-American after finishing fifth in the nation in punting (45.7). Kicker Trey Smack ended the season ranked 24th in the country in field goal percentage (.857). hitting 18-of-21 field goals, with a long of 55.

• Couch helped tutor Crawshaw to become Florida's all-time career leader in punt average at 46.4. On the return side, Jadan Baugh was one of eight SEC players to own two 30-yard plus kick returns and one of 11 freshmen in the FBS to do so. Out of Chimere Dike's 14 returns, four of them went for 20-plus yards, making him one of 23 players in the FBS to accomplish the feat.

• Prior to his time at Florida, Couch spent the 2021 season at Louisiana as Special Teams Coordinator where the Ragin' Cajuns ranked 15th nationally in punting average and fourth in the Sun Belt Conference in kick return yardage during Couch's lone season in Lafayette.

• Prior to joining the Ragin' Cajuns, Couch spent five seasons at Tulane (2016-20), where he worked as the special teams analyst and recruiting coordinator. During his last three seasons at Tulane, the Green Wave ranked in the top half of the American Athletic Conference and top-50 nationally in both kick and punt returns.

• Prior to Tulane, Couch served as a special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Point University during the 2015 season, helping the Skyhawks to a 9-3 overall record, a perfect 5-0 conference record and their first-ever NAIA playoff appearance.

• Among the NAIA national leaders, the Skyhawks ranked third in net punting, 20th in punt return yardage and 30th in kickoff return yardage.

• Before joining Point University, Couch worked as a defensive graduate assistant at Georgia Southern. He assisted with linebackers in 2014 and defensive tackles in 2013. During his stint at Georgia Southern, he was part of a perfect 8-0 Sun Belt Conference record in 2014, while assisting in the coaching of future NFL players Edwin Jackson, Antwoine Williams and Ironhead Gallon.

• Couch was the slot backs coach at Missouri Southern State University in 2012. With a 6-5 record, the Lions recorded their first winning season in a number of years, highlighted by an overtime win over second-ranked Missouri Western.

• Couch earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Georgia Southern in 2011 and his master's degree in high education administration from Georgia Southern in 2015.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN	0
HOUSTON	27

HOUSTON (AP) – University of Houston quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 159 yards and three touchdowns in his Cougar debut, and the Cougars beat Stephen F Austin 27-0 in the season opener for both teams inside TDECU Stadium on Thursday night.

Weigman, a transfer from Texas A&M, finished 15-of-24 and threw touchdown passes of 11 yards to senior tight end Tanner Koziol and 39 yards to sophomore running J'Marion Burnette in the first half as Houston built a 17-0 halftime lead. Weigman, who also rushed for 39 yards, found junior wideout Amare Thomas for a 20-yard touchdown in the third quarter.

Koziol, a Ball State transfer, finished with 63 yards on seven catches, and Thomas, a UAB transfer, caught three passes for 44 yards.

It was Houston's first shutout since defeating Grambling 45-0 on Sept. 18, 2021, and first shutout in a season opener since beating UNLV 69-0 on Sept. 2, 1989.

Houston outgained the Lumberjacks 343-144.

Sam Vidlak was 13 of 26 passing for 52 yards and an interception, and Gavin Rutherford was 4 of 7 passing for 53 yards and an interception for SFA (0-1). Kylon Harris caught four passes for 20 yards, and Jordan Nabors had 21 yards on three receptions.

THE TAKEAWAY

SFA: The Lumberjacks could get very little going offensively as the Cougars' defense was in the backfield most of the night. The Lumberjacks finished with 39 yards rushing.

Houston: The Cougars looked much improved from last season when they were one of the worst offensive teams in the nation. The Cougars' defense had two sacks, two interceptions and held SFA to 3-of-16 on third downs.

Sept. 6, 2025 • Rice Stadium • Houston

HOUSTON	35
RICE	9

HOUSTON – University of Houston senior running back Dean Connors rushed for 132 yards with a pair of touchdowns to lead the Cougars to a 35-9 win over Rice inside Rice Stadium during the Bayou Bucket Classic on Saturday night.

Connors, who transferred to Houston from Rice in the offseason, collected the Cougars' first 100-yard rushing game of the season on only 13 carries. The Kamuela, Hawai'i, native gave Houston the lead for good with a 54-yard touchdown run late in the first half and capped the scoring with a 42-yard touchdown run during the final four minutes of the game.

He recorded the sixth 100-yard rushing game and the second highest rushing total of his career with his performance. It was Connors' first triple-digit performance since posting 105 yards and two touchdowns with the Owls against Navy on Nov. 2, 2024.

Houston overcame a slow start offensively to rack up 378 yards of total offense, with 188 through the air and 190 on the ground. Junior quarterback Conner Weigman posted 188 passing yards and a touchdown on 15-of-22 attempts and scored the Cougars' second touchdown of the night midway through the third quarter on a 9-yard run.

Meanwhile, the Cougar defense held its second straight opponent under double-digit points to open the season and forced two turnovers while limiting the Owls to only 51 yards on 11-of-13 passing.

Senior defensive back Latrell McCutchin Sr., led Houston with 11 tackles, including six solo stops, while senior defensive lineman Carlos Allen posted nine tackles, including three solo.

The Cougars won their second straight against Rice and for the ninth time in the last 10 meetings against the Owls. Only a double-overtime loss in Rice Stadium in 2023 prevents a longer streak.

Forcing a Rice punt late, the Cougars took over on their 26-yard line with just 75 seconds left in the opening half. Facing 2nd-and-15 from the Houston 21, Weigman connected with senior tight end Tanner Koziol on a 21-yard stroke for a first down.

Three plays later, Connors burst through the line and outran all Rice defenders 54 yards to the end zone for a 7-3 Cougar lead.

After forcing Rice to punt on its opening possession of the second half, Weigman led the Cougars on a 15-play, 76-yard drive that took nearly seven minutes of the clock and was capped on his 9-yard touchdown plunge for a 14-3 Houston lead.

Houston's defense put its mark on the scoreboard on the Cougars' next play from scrimmage. Dropping back to pass, Rice quarterback Chase Jenkins' pass was deflected by junior defensive lineman Latreveon McCutchin into the arms of sophomore cornerback Will James, who sprinted down the Houston sideline 37 yards to give the Cougars a 21-3 lead with 14:53 left in the game.

Rice pulled to within 21-9 when Jenkins rushed into the end zone from two yards out with 9:02 left in the game, but the Cougar defense stiffened and halted the Owls' 2-point conversion.

The Cougars quickly struck again to expand their lead as Weigman hit senior wide receiver Stephon Johnson on a 74-yard touchdown pass with 8:20 remaining for a 28-9 advantage.

COLORADO	20
HOUSTON	36

HOUSTON (AP) – University of Houston junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 222 yards and ran for 83 yards and two touchdowns – both career highs – to lead Houston over Colorado 36-20 inside TDECU Stadium on Friday night.

The Cougars (3-0, 1-0 Big 12) were up by five late in the third quarter when senior running back Dean Connors ran 18 yards to get them to the 1-yard line. Weigman scored on the next play to make it 26-14.

Senior defensive back Blake Thompson intercepted Ryan Staub on the first play of the fourth quarter, but the Cougars couldn't cash in on the mistake after junior kicker Ethan Sanchez missed a 50-yard field goal attempt, his lone miss in six tries on Friday night.

Houston forced a punt, and Weigman made it 33-14 when he scored on a 7-yard run that was set up by a 54-yard pass to senior wide receiver Stephon Johnson a play earlier.

Staub got his first start of the season. He served as the backup to Shedeur Sanders the past two seasons and entered the year as the third-string quarterback behind Kaidon Salter, who started the first two games, and heralded freshman Julian Lewis. Staub earned the start this week after throwing two touchdown passes in a 31-7 win over Delaware a week prior.

Staub was 19 of 35 for 204 yards and a touchdown, but couldn't get much going in the second half as Colorado (1-2, 0-1) managed just six points after halftime, and he was intercepted twice.

Houston led 13-0 early after scoring on its first three possessions. Colorado cut the lead to 13-7 when Simeon Price capped a 10-play, 93-yard drive with a 38-yard touchdown run with about 7 1/2 minutes left in the second quarter.

A field goal by the Cougars made it 16-7 with less than two minutes remaining in the first half. But the Buffaloes added a touchdown just before halftime to get within 16-14. Staub scrambled 19 yards but fumbled before he crossed the goal line and Zach Atkins jumped on the ball in the end zone for the score.

Colorado: Head coach Deion Sanders must decide if Staub is the answer at quarterback or if he should give Lewis or Salter another shot.

Houston: Weigman has looked great in his first three games for the Cougars after a transfer from Texas A&M. He has thrown four touchdown passes without an interception and added three rushing scores. The Cougars are 3-0 to start the season for the first time since 2016.

Sept. 26, 2025• Reser Stadium • Corvallis, Ore.

HOUSTON	27
OREGON STATE	24

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) – Trailing by 14 points late in the fourth quarter, the Houston Football program rallied to score 17 unanswered points on the way to a 27-24 win in overtime over Oregon State inside Reser Stadium on Friday night.

Oregon State appeared to seize control of the game when running back Cornell Hatcher Jr. rushed up the middle from 18 yards out for a 24-10 Beaver lead with 12:34 left in regulation.

The score remained that way until Houston took over on its 24-yard line with 8:17 remaining and launched a seven-play drive that was capped by senior quarterback Conner Weigman's 27-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Stephon Johnson for a 24-17 Oregon State lead with 5:59 left in regulation.

After the Houston defense forced the Beavers into a three-and-out on the ensuing possession, the Cougar offense worked quickly and tied the game at 24-24 when Weigman connected with senior tight end Tanner Koziol, who erupted through the middle on a 50-yard touchdown pass with 3:40 remaining in the game.

The two teams traded punts, and Oregon State had a chance to win the game on the final play of regulation. However, sophomore defensive back Will James burst through the Oregon State line and blocked Cameron Smith's 46-yard field goal try to send the game into overtime.

It was the Cougars' second field goal block of the night after Latrell McCutchin Sr. stopped Caleb Ojeda's 49-yard field goal late in the first half.

Starting overtime on offense, Oregon State moved the ball and faced third-and-1 from the Houston 16. However, the Cougar defense halted two straight Beaver runs up the middle without another yard gained to force the turnover on downs.

With the Cougars taking over on offense, Weigman hit senior running back Dean Connors on a 12-yard yard pass on third-and-6 to extend the drive. Connors followed with a 5-yard run to the OSU 4 and, after Weigman took a knee to set up the field goal attempt, senior kicker Ethan Sanchez booted the game-winning 24-yard kick to stun the crowd of 29,338.

Sanchez drilled a pair of field goals against the Beavers and has nailed seven of his last eight field goal tries after going 5-of-6 against Colorado inside TDECU Stadium on Sept. 12.

With the win, Houston improved to 4-0 for the first time since 2016. Oregon State fell to 0-5.

Weigman threw for 270 yards and two touchdowns on 20-of-36 passing and added a 1-yard touchdown run. Junior receiver Amare Thomas led the Cougars with six receptions for 104 yards while Connors rushed for a team-high 53 yards.

HOUSTON	11

HOUSTON – In a battle of 4-0 teams, #11/14 Texas Tech took advantage of two early Houston turnovers and scored points on each of its first five possessions in the game to win 35-11 over Houston inside TDECU Stadium on Saturday evening.

After holding Texas Tech to field goals on each of its first three possessions, Houston put its first mark on the scoreboard when senior kicker Ethan Sanchez booted a 24-yard field goal for a 9-3 Red Raider lead late in the first quarter.

Texas Tech pushed its lead to 24-3 following a 69-yard touchdown pass to receiver Cameron Dickey from quarterback Behren Morton late in the first quarter, a five-yard touchdown run by J'Koby Williams early in the second quarter and a 26-yard field goal from Stone Harrington late in the first half.

Following an injury to senior quarterback Conner Weigman, quarterback Zeon Chriss-Gremillion hit junior receiver Amare Thomas on a 64-yard touchdown pass to pull the Cougars to within 25-11 with 87 seconds remaining in the first half.

Texas Tech added 10 points in the second half on Upton Bellenfant's field goal and Williams' second touchdown run of the game early in the final period.

HOUSTON	39
OKLAHOMA STATE	17

STILLWATER, Okla. – University of Houston junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 306 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for another score to lead the Cougars to a 39-17 win over Oklahoma State inside Boone Pickens Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

In one of their most complete performances of the season to date, the Cougars rolled to 485 yards of total offense, including 319 passing yards, and limited the Cowboys to only 225 yards of offense, including 45 rushing yards on 31 carries.

Tied 10-10 with less than six minutes remaining in the first half, Houston scored 26 unanswered points to record its first win in Stillwater since the Cougars took a 45-35 win over the #5/6 Cowboys on Sept. 12, 2009.

Senior running back Dean Connors rushed for 83 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries and added two catches for seven yards, including an amazing, one-handed 6-yard touchdown reception to give the Cougars the lead for good midway through the second quarter.

With that Connors became the 33rd Cougar in school history to record rushing and receiving touchdowns in the same game. He became the first Cougar to accomplish that feat since quarterback Donovan Smith threw, rushed and caught touchdowns against #24/25 Oklahoma State on Nov. 18, 2023.

Junior wide receiver Amare Thomas led all players with seven receptions for 157 yards while senior tight end Tanner Koziol hauled in five catches for 66 yards. Defensively, senior linebacker Jalen Garner led the Cougars with seven tackles, including four solo with two for solo stops, and forced a pair of fumbles with a pass breakup. Defensive lineman Carlos Allen added six tackles with three solo stops and broke up a pass.

On the special teams side, senior kicker Ethan Sanchez booted four field goals with a long of 48 yards on Saturday.

After an Oklahoma State turnover on downs on the next possession, the Cougars took over and grabbed a 10-3 lead when senior kicker Ethan Sanchez booted a 46-yard field goal with 45 seconds left in the opening period.

Houston regained the lead after forcing the Cowboys to punt. Senior running back Dean Connors highlighted the drive, rushing twice for 22 yards and snagging an amazing, one-handed, 6-yard touchdown pass from Weigman with 5:39 remaining in the first half.

The Cougars pushed their advantage to 24-10 when Weigman connected on another one-handed touchdown reception – this one to Broussard from 14 yards out – with 3:16 left in the first half.

Houston opened the second half with field goals from Sanchez on its first two possessions of 48 and 30 yards and grabbed a 36-10 lead on Connors' 2-yard touchdown run with only 35 seconds left in the third quarter.

Oct. 18, 2025 • TDECU Stadium • Houston

ARIZONA	28
HOUSTON	31

HOUSTON – University of Houston senior kicker Ethan Sanchez drilled a 41-yard field as time expired to lead Houston to a 31-28 win over Arizona inside TDECU Stadium on Saturday.

Sanchez capped a 13-play, 52-yard drive with the field goal. Houston (6-1, 3-1 Big 12) became bowl-eligible for the first time since 2022 with the win.

Junior quarterback Conner Weigman went 15-of-23 passing for 164 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed for 98 yards and a touchdown. Weigman threw touchdown passes of 52 and 15 yards and rushed for a 10-yard score in the first half as Houston took a 21-14 halftime lead.

Senior running back Dean Connors rushed for 100 yards on 20 carries for the Cougars, which outgained Arizona 396-381 yards, including 232-112 rushing.

Weigman threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Amare Thomas with six minutes left in the third quarter to put the Cougars up 14.

Arizona (4-3, 1-3) cut the lead to seven on a 3-yard touchdown run by Tre Spivey to start the fourth quarter, and tied it at 28 on a 2-yard touchdown run by Kedrick Reescano with 4:48 left.

Noah Fifita finished 24-of-26 for 269 yards and two touchdowns. Fifita threw touchdown passes of 70 yards to Spivey and 13 yards to Luke Wysong in the first half.

NOTES
Arizona: The Wildcats had issues stopping Houston on the ground but also getting the Cougars off the field. The Wildcats have lost three of their last four games.

Houston: The Cougars had issues slowing Fifita, but they did get four sacks and six tackles for loss. Houston finished 10 of 16 on third and fourth downs combined.

HOUSTON	24
#24/25 ARIZONA STATE	16

TEMPE, Ariz. – University of Houston junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 201 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 111 yards and two more scores to lead the Cougars to a 24-16 win over #24/25 Arizona State inside Mountain America Stadium on Saturday night.

For the third straight game and the fourth time in the last five outings, Weigman was responsible for at least three touchdowns.

Houston jumped out to a 24-0 lead and never looked back in the first meeting against Arizona State since Dec. 1, 1990.

Senior tight end Tanner Koziol was Weigman's leading target through the air, hauling in seven catches for 100 yards and a 7-yard touchdown catch midway through the third period that gave the Cougars a 17-0 lead.

The Houston defense limited Arizona to 98 rushing yards. Senior defensive lineman Eddie Walls III posted five tackles, including three for a loss and added a pass breakup and quarterback hurry.

With the win, rv/rv Houston won its third straight game to improve to 7-1 overall and 4-1 in Big 12 play. #24/25 Arizona State fell to 5-2 overall and 3-1 in league action.

Taking the opening kickoff, the Cougars marched 68 yards down the field and grabbed a 3-0 lead when senior kicker Ethan Sanchez booted a 26-yard field goal with 10:29 remaining in the opening period. It was the sixth straight game in which Sanchez drilled at least one field goal.

After Arizona State missed a field goal on its first possession of the game, the Cougars took over and grabbed a 10-0 lead when Weigman plunged into the end zone from one yard out. Senior running back Dean Connors converted a key third down with a 12-yard run, and the Cougars took advantage of a pair of Sun Devil penalties on third-and-goal at the 1-yard line to set up Weigman's score.

Forcing Arizona State into a three-and out on its first possession of the second half, the Cougars used six-play, 57-yard drive and grabbed a 17-0 advantage when Weigman connected with Koziol on a 7-yard touchdown strike in the back of the end zone.

The Sun Devils missed their second field goal of the night on their next possession. From there, the Cougars embarked on a 10-play, 75-yard drive that took nearly five minutes off the clock and was capped when Weigman scored from one yard out for a 24-0 Houston lead with 1:06 in the third quarter.

Arizona State put its first mark on the scoreboard when quarterback Sam Leavitt connected with Cameron Harpole on a 3-yard touchdown pass to bring the Sun Devils to within 24-6 with 13:56 left in the game.

After a field goal, the Sun Devils closed to within 24-16 when quarterback Jeff Sims hit Chamon Metayer on a 27-yard touchdown pass with 5:12 left.

The Cougars then pinned the Sun Devils at their 5-yard line. On fourth-and-4, Kentrell Webb broke up a Jeff Sims pass to Derek Eusebio to seal the Houston win.

The Cougars earned their first road win over a ranked opponent since taking a 28-24 win at #17/14 South Florida on Oct. 29, 2017.

	WEST VIRGINIA	45
	#22/22 HOUSTON	35

HOUSTON – West Virginia jumped out to a 14-0 lead and took advantage of four turnovers to take a 45-35 win over the #22/22 University of Houston Football team inside TDECU Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Mountaineers grabbed a 21-7 lead early in the second quarter on quarterback Scotty Fox Jr.'s 24-yard touchdown pass to Cam Vaughn with 12:54 left.

However, the Cougars rallied and used a 1-yard touchdown score from Weigman and the quarterback's 9-yard touchdown strike to Thomas to tie the game at 21-21 with just over three minutes remaining in the first half.

Unfortunately, the Mountaineers outscored Houston 24-14 in the second half to take the win.

Junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 309 yards and four touchdowns and rushed for another score but was picked off twice.

Junior wide receiver Amare Thomas was Weigman's leading target through the air, hauling in 10 catches for 99 yards and three touchdowns. Senior running back Dean Connors accounted for 71 rushing yards on 13 carries.

Following a Houston turnover on its first possession of the second half, West Virginia took over in Cougar territory. However, the Mountaineers could only move 15 yards before Kade Hensley's 50-yard field goal gave them a 24-21 lead with 12:19 left in the third quarter.

Jordan Scruggs gave West Virginia a 31-21 lead after intercepting a Houston pass and running 80 yards into the end zone with 6:45 left in the third quarter.

The Cougars rallied and used a 12-play, 75-yard drive that was capped by Weigman's 8-yard touchdown strike to Thomas for their second scoring connection of the game to move within 31-28 with 1:16 left in the third quarter.

Fox's 34-yard touchdown up the middle pushed West Virginia's lead back to double digits early in the third quarter, and Diore Hubbard's 11-yard touchdown midway through the final period gave the Mountaineers a 45-28 lead.

The Cougars closed to within 45-35 when Weigman and Thomas connected through the air for the third tie, but that would be as close as Houston would get the rest of the way.

Hubbard rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown on 29 carries to lead the Mountaineers.

Nov. 7, 2025 • Acrisure Bounce House • Orlando, Fla.

	HOUSTON	30
	UCF	27

ORLANDO, Fla. – University of Houston senior kicker Ethan Sanchez drilled a tie-breaking 22-yard field goal with less than three minutes remaining, and junior defensive back Kentrell Webb's first career interception in the end zone halted the final drive as the Cougars rallied to take a 30-27 win over UCF inside Acrisure Bounce House on Friday night.

Following Sanchez' field goal and a Cougar penalty enforced on the kickoff, UCF took over near midfield, and reserve quarterback Davi Belfort led the Knights to the Houston 27. With the Knights facing third-and-long and 18 seconds left, Webb stepped in front of a Belfort pass intended for Duane Thomas Jr. in the end zone and went down for a touchback to seal the win for the Cougars.

Houston found itself down 10 points less than six minutes into the game and again late in the first half before rallying to snap a four-game losing streak to UCF and claim its first road win over the Knights since Oct. 24, 2015.

The Cougars outscored UCF 13-3 and limited the Knights to only 104 total yards in the second half.

Sophomore linebacker Corey Platt Jr. led the Houston defense with five tackles, including two for a loss of seven yards, while junior defensive back Latreveon McCutchin added a 45-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Junior wide receiver Amare Thomas hauled in five catches for 103 yards and a touchdown for the Cougars' first points of the game midway through the second quarter. It was his third 100-yard receiving game of the season.

Junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 223 yards and a pair of touchdowns with a team-high 82 rushing yards on 22 carries.

With the win, Houston improved to 8-2 overall and 5-2 in Big 12 play. The Cougars matched their win total from the 2024 season with three regular-season games remaining and improved to 5-0 on the road in 2025.

The Cougars took over on the ensuing drive and moved to within 10-7 when Weigman connected with Thomas down the right sideline for a 64-yard touchdown with 7:52 left.

Houston claimed its first lead when McCutchin stepped in front of a Tayven Jackson pass and outraced UCF defenders to the end zone for a 14-10 Cougar lead with 6:36 to go in the first half.

After forcing UCF into a 3-and-out on the next possession, Houston used a 15-play drive that consumed nearly eight minutes and was capped when Sanchez drilled a 22-yard field goal with just 2:31 remaining.

	#23 HOUSTON	14

HOUSTON – Despite forcing five TCU turnovers with three on consecutive possessions in the first half, No. 23 Houston fell short 17-14 following a missed late game-tying field goal attempt at TDECU Stadium on Saturday.

After stopping the Horned Frogs (7-4, 4-4 Big 12) on the 5-yard line with just under two minutes remaining, the Cougars (8-3, 5-3) drove the ball all the down to the opposing 20-yard line for a chance to level the score before senior kicker Ethan Sanchez's 38-yard attempt with 46 seconds remaining went wide left.

TCU's Nate McCashland hit a 29-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to give the Horned Frogs a three-point lead.

Trailing 14-7 at the half, Houston overcome consecutive three-and-out possession after sophomore corner back Will James grabbed his second interception of the game and third forced turnover of the day to give the Cougars the ball midway through the third.

Houston drove 71 yards down the field in six plays, stringing together three design plays at the end of the possession. Junior quarterback Conner Weigman capped off the drive with a short pass right to senior running back Dean Connors for an 8-yard score to level the score at 14-14.

Down 14-0 at the end of the first following two touchdown throws from TCU's Josh Hoover, the Cougars sparked momentum following James' first interception of the game early in the second quarter. Houston capitalized on the ensuing drive, marching down the field to end a 13-play, 62-yard drive with a 13-yard strike from Weigman to junior wide receiver Amare Thomas for the Cougars' first score of the day.

Weigman was 15 of 29 for 161 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 114 yards. Connors ran for 75 yards and caught five passes for 47 yards and a touchdown while Thomas had five receptions for 72 yards and a score.

Defensively, James notched his first multi-turnover outing with three on day including a punch-out in the third quarter recovered by sophomore safety Jordan Allen.

Nov. 29, 2025 • McLane Stadium • Waco, Texas

	HOUSTON	31
	BAYLOR	24

WACO, Texas – University of Houston junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 201 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 121 yards and two more scores to lead the –/rv Cougars to a 31-24 win over Baylor inside McLane Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Houston held a 24-9 lead early in the fourth quarter before Baylor rallied with 15 points in the final period to tie the game at 24-24 on Josh Cameron's 31-yard touchdown pass from Sawyer Robertson with 8:53 left in the game.

Taking over on Houston's 26-yard line, Weigman led the Cougars on a 15-play, 74-yard drive that consumed nearly seven minutes on the clock. Weigman and the Cougars converted on a third down at midfield and a fourth-and-7 from the Baylor 41 to extend the drive.

Facing third-and-3 on the Baylor 13, Houston took advantage of a defensive pass interference call on third down and seized the lead for good on senior running back Dean Connors' 1-yard touchdown plunge two plays later with 1:57 remaining.

Baylor took the ensuing kickoff and moved to the Houston 13 with under a minute remaining. However, the Cougar defense held and turned the ball over on downs on Bears quarterback Sawyer Robertson's incomplete pass on fourth down.

Junior wide receiver Amare Thomas hauled in nine catches for 97 yards and gave the Cougars the first points of the game with a 27-yard touchdown catch midway through the first quarter.

The Houston defense forced two Baylor turnovers and was led by junior defensive back Kentrell Webb, who posted 10 solo tackles. Junior linebacker Sione Fotu added four solo stops with a quarterback hurry and a fumble recovery.

With the win, –/rv, Houston improved to 9-3 overall and 6-3 in the Big 12. The Cougars recorded their first nine-win season or better since the 2021 team finished 12-2. It also stands as the program's second-highest win total in the last 10 years.

Houston improved to 6-0 on the road with the win, becoming the only FBS team with a 6-0 record on the road this season. The 6-0 road record is Houston's third in program history. Baylor fell to 5-7 overall and 3-6 in Big 12 play.

Robertson led Baylor with 309 yards and a touchdown on 23-of-46 passing. Running back Joseph Dodds led the team with 61 rushing yards and a touchdown on 12 carries while Kole Wilson posted seven receptions for 69 yards.

After forcing Baylor to punt on its opening possession, the Cougars took over on their 18-yard line and marched 82 yards on 12 plays and took the lead when Weigman connected with Thomas on a 27-yard touchdown strike with 7:47 left in the first quarter.

Taking over on their own 31-yard line following a Robertson fumble, the Cougars pushed their lead to 14-0 when Weigman weaved his way through the Bear defense on a 28-yard scamper into the end zone with 14:13 left in the second quarter.

	#22/22 HOUSTON	38

HOUSTON – Junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 236 yards and four touchdowns as Houston rallied from an early 14-0 deficit for a 38-35 victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl on Saturday night.

Weigman finished 27-of-36 passing and rushed for 56 yards for the Cougars (10-3), who were playing about 6 miles from their campus at the home of the NFL's Houston Texans. He threw touchdown passes of eight and four yards to wide receiver Amare Thomas and seven yards to tight end Tanner Koziol to end the first half as Houston climbed out of a 14-0 hole to take a 21-14 lead into the break.

Kicker Ethan Sanchez made a 25-yard field goal to give the Cougars a 31-28 lead with 7:42 remaining. LSU went three-and-out, and Dean Connors rushed for a 20-yard touchdown with 2:23 left to give Houston a 10-point lead, its largest of the game.

LSU's Zavion Thomas cut the deficit to three with a 3-yard rushing touchdown with 1:15 to go, but Houston recovered the onside kick to ice it.

Koziol caught nine passes for 76 yards and a TD. Thomas had seven catches for 66 yards and two scores, and Connors ran for 126 yards for Houston, his third 100-yard rushing game as a Cougar. The Cougars outgained LSU 437-344. Connors' 977 rushing yards on the year are the most by a Cougar running back since 2014.

LSU (7-6) opened a 14-0 lead in the first 4:12 on a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Barion Brown to start the game and a 23-yard touchdown pass from Michael Van Buren Jr. to Trey'Dez Green.

Van Buren finished 16 of 26 for 267 yards and three touchdowns. He threw scoring passes of 4 yards to Green and 6 yards to Kyle Parker, sandwiched around a 2-yard TD pass from Weigman to Traville Frederick Jr., to tie it 28-all early in the fourth quarter.

Green had 80 yards receiving, and Parker had 68 yards receiving.

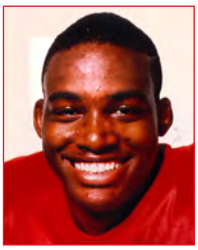
NATIONAL AWARDS

ANDRÉ WARE
1989 • HEISMAN TROPHY
1989 • DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD



In 1989 University of Houston junior quarterback André Ware was the recipient of the 55th annual Heisman Trophy.

The award, presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York, culminated a record-setting season in which Ware set 26 NCAA and 15 Southwest Conference records for passing and total offense.

He became the first Cougar and the fifth player from the Southwest Conference to win the Heisman, and he did it without playing a single game before live national television cameras.

Despite playing just a little more than the first half of most games, Ware completed 365-of-578 pass attempts (.631) for 4,699 yards and 46 touchdowns to lead the Cougars to a 9-2 season record and a No.14 national ranking.

The soft-spoken native of Dickinson, Texas, captured the nation's imagination in his first full season as a starting quarterback, averaging over 427 yards passing per game and at one point attempting 154 straight passes without an interception.

A consensus First-Team All-American, Ware left Houston following his junior season to enter the NFL Draft, where he was a first-round and seventh overall pick by the Detroit Lions. He also played in the Canadian Football League before retiring.

In 1996, Ware returned to UH to earn his bachelor's degree in marketing. Of that accomplishment Ware said, "This ranks right up there with receiving the Heisman Trophy."

Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

Today, he can be heard as an analyst for ESPN college football on Saturdays and for Houston Texans radio broadcasts on Sundays during the NFL season.

MARCUS JONES
2021 • PAUL HORNUNG AWARD

Marcus Jones became the first Cougar to receive the Paul Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player in major college football following the 2021 season.

As a senior in 2021, Jones boasted 48 tackles with five interceptions, 13 pass breakups, one forced fumble and one tackle for a loss.

He ranked second nationally with five interceptions and stood sixth in the country with 1.4 passes defended per game.

Jones was the only player in the nation with multiple punt and multiple kick return touchdowns in 2021. He was fourth in the nation in punt return average (14.4) and averaged a staggering 34.0 yards per kickoff return.

On offense, the Enterprise, Ala., native lined up at wide receiver in wins over Navy and crosstown rival Rice, catching 10 passes for 109 yards and a score while rushing the ball twice.

Jones enjoyed a career-night in the Cougars' 44-37 win over No. 19/16 SMU, returning a kickoff 100 yards for the winning score with 17 seconds left, as well as six tackles with one for a loss and an interception.

Against Navy, Jones returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown and caught a 47-yard touchdown pass.

In a 31-23 home win in overtime over East Carolina, he returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown for the longest play at the time in TDECU Stadium history.

In The American Championship at No. 3/4 Cincinnati, Jones returned one punt for 14 yards and four kickoffs for 92 yards while forcing a fumble and breaking up a pass.

ED OLIVER
2017 • OUTLAND TROPHY

Emerging as one of the nation's premier players on either side of the ball, Ed Oliver became the Cougars' first recipient of the Outland Trophy in 2017.

Also The American Athletic Conference's Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Oliver became Houston's third major award winner.

The American's Defensive Player of the Year, Oliver led the nation with a career average of 1.58 tackles for loss per game through his first two seasons, totaling 39.5 tackles for loss in only 25 games.

Playing the nose spot in a three-man front, Oliver totaled 73 tackles in 12 games in 2017 despite missing three quarters of one game and being limited in the next four with a knee injury.

His average of 6.1 tackles per game in 2017 ranked fourth nationally among all defensive linemen. Oliver's 73 total tackles rank second nationally among defensive tackles.

Oliver's 14.5 tackles for loss are fourth among defensive tackles while his average of 1.38 tackles for loss per game led all defensive linemen in The American.

The Houston native led UH in tackles for loss (16.5), sacks (5.5), quarterback hurries (7), forced fumbles (2) and blocked kicks (1). He also had three pass breakups and one fumble recovery on the year.

Oliver recorded two double-digit tackle games in 2017, part of seven games with at least five tackles. He had four games in 2017 with multiple tackles for loss and now has 12 career games with the distinction.

Oliver closed out the regular season in style with a career-high 14 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks as he led a Houston defense that held Navy to its lowest point total (14), total yards (291) and rushing output (217) of the season in the 24-14 win.

2015 • EARL CAMPBELL TYLER ROSE AWARD

Quarterback Greg Ward Jr. became the first Cougar to receive the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award for his outstanding performance during the 2015 season.

Ward became the first Houston quarterback to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing the year with 1,108 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns to go with 2,828 passing yards and 17 touchdowns.

He ranked ninth nationally in completion percentage, competing 232-of-345 passes, while throwing only six interceptions, seventh best nationally among quarterbacks with at least 300 attempts.

The single-season quarterback rushing record was one of 14 Houston or The American Athletic Conference records that Ward broke in 2015 while tying three others including the Houston single-season rushing touchdowns record with his 21 scores.

Ward ranked in the top 25 in five of the NCAA's final recognized stat categories: completion percentage (ninth), points responsible for (12th), points responsible for per game (15th), rushing TDs (fifth) and scoring (25th). He finished seventh nationally in scoring among non-kickers with 126 points.

Ward was a three-time American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week, four-time American Athletic Conference weekly Honor Roll member, a Manning Award finalist, The American Championship Most Valuable Player and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Over his final two seasons, Ward posted a 19-2 record as the Cougars' starting quarterback and stood in fifth place school history with 19 wins with victories in each of his last 15 starts.

The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, announced in 2012 by the Tyler Chamber and SPORTyler, recognizes the top offensive player in Division 1 football who also exhibits the enduring characteristics that define Earl Campbell: integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, drive, community, and tenacity; specifically tenacity to persist and determination to overcome adversity and injury in pursuit of reaching goals.

With the completion of his collegiate career, Ward entered the professional ranks and has competed with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles as a wide receiver for each of the last three years entering the 2022 season.

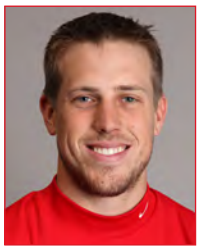
CASE KEENUM
2011, 2009 • SAMMY BAUGH AWARD
2009 • COLLEGE FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE NATIONAL QUARTERBACK AWARD



Case Keenum will forever live in the hears of all Cougar fans as well as the NCAA records books after an outstanding collegiate career.

The Abilene, Texas, native became only the second quarterback to win the Sammy Baugh Award twice (2011, 2009) and also received the 2009 College Football Perforamnce National Quarterback Award.

The Sammy Baugh Award is presented to the nation's top collegiate passer.

Keenum won the Sammy Baugh Trophy for the final time in inspiriational fashion. Early in the 2010 season, he overcame a serious knee injury early, which forced him to miss the final nine games of that season. However, he received a medical redshirt and returned to record one of the greatest seasons in college football history one year later.

Throwing for 5,631 yards with a school-record 58 touchdowns, Keenum guided the Cougars to a victory over No. 24/23 Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl and Top-20 rankings in both final national polls and was named to numerous All-America teams.

In 2009, Keenum led the Cougars to a 10-4 overall record with berths in the Conference USA Championship Game and the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

He also was named the league's Most Valuable Player and earned All-America honors for the first time in his career.

By the time his amazing collegiate career was finished, Keenum had set FBS career records in total offense (19,217), passing yards (18,312), touchdown passes (155), touchdowns responsible for (173) and completions (1,460).

Following his UH playing days, he began his professional career in the NFL and enters the 2022 season with the Buffalo Bills.

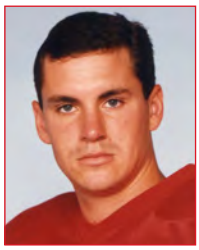
DAVID KLINGLER
1990 • SAMMY BAUGH AWARD



Following Andre Ware's award-winning career at the University of Houston, some football fans wondered if the Cougars would ever see another quarterback like that.

It took David Klingler little time to answer those questions.

After patiently waiting as a reserve for his first two collegiate seasons, Klingler took over the reins of the Houston offense as a junior during the 1990 season and immediately began rewriting the Cougar and NCAA records book.

In his first game as the Cougars' starter, the Houston native threw for 426 yards and five touchdowns in the season-opening win over UNLV.

That season, he threw for 5,140 yards and an NCAA record 54 touchdowns in only 11 games, the latter standing for nearly two decades. His season average of 4.9 touchdowns per game remains an NCAA FBS record today.

Klingler set NCAA- and Houston single-game records, which continue to stand today, with 11 touchdown passes in a win over Eastern Washington on Nov. 17, 1990, during the Cougars' home finale inside the Houston Astrodome.

In the final game that season, Klingler threw for an NCAA FBS-record 716 yards in a 62-45 win over Arizona State in Tokyo. That mark would not be topped by a collegiate quarterback until 2014.

Klingler guided the Cougars to a 10-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Southwest Conference and a No. 10 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

For his impressive efforts, Klingler received the 1990 Sammy Baugh Award, presented annually to the nation's top collegiate passer, and became the first recipient in Houston history.

Following his collegiate career, Klingler was taken with the No. 6 overall pick by the Cincinnati Bengals and later played for the Oakland Raiders.

Today, he serves as associate professor of Bible exposition at Dallas Theological Seminary.

NATIONAL AWARDS

WILSON WHITLEY
1976 • LOMBARDI AWARD

After leading the University of Houston to the 1976 Southwest Conference championship in the Cougars' first season in the league, Wilson Whitley was honored with the Lombardi Award as the nation's most outstanding college lineman.

Though double- and often triple-teamed during the season, the 6-foot-3, 280-pound Whitley routinely dominated the line of scrimmage from the defensive tackle position. He led the Cougars in sacks, fumbles forced and fumbles recovered, anchoring a defense that held opponents to 10 or fewer points five times during the regular season.

In a near-perfect defensive performance on the road at Texas, Whitley and the Cougars held the Longhorns to eight total first tdowns and 24 rushing yards en route to a 3-0 win. Houston went on to defeat previously unbeated Maryland in the Cotton Bowl to cap a 10-2 season.

Though 1976 was his one and only year in the Southwest Conference, Whitley was named the league's Player of the Decade for the 1970s. The Brenham, Texas, native was the first and just one of three league players ever to win the Lombardi Award.

In the spring of 1976, Whitley was the eighth overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, with whom he played for six seasons.

After a seven-year professional football career, which also included one season with the Houston Oilers, Whitley served as the National Director of Sports Marketing with Holiday Inn, Inc., until he suffered a fatal heart attack in 1992.

He was inducted into the University's Hall of Honor in 1998, the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1985, and was a member of the Texas Football Magazine's Silver Anniversary Team as both a high school and collegiate player.

He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in July 2008.

BOWL RECAPS

1952 SALAD BOWL

Houston 26, Dayton 21

Jan. 1, 1952 • Montgomery Stadium • Phoenix

A crowd of 17,000 saw Houston defeat Dayton, 26-21, in the Fifth Annual Salad Bowl in Phoenix, Ariz., the Cougars' first-ever bowl appearance. Houston's Gene Shannon, a 1,000-yard rusher during the regular season, scored all four of the Cougars' touchdowns and was named MVP of the contest.

Shannon rushed for 175 yards on 28 carries, including 129 yards in the first half. Behind the blocking of fellow running backs Randy Owens (who gained 76 yards on the day) and Warren Ramsey (83 yards), and linemen Howard Clapp, Buck Miller and Lloyd Holloway, Shannon gained more yards than the entire Dayton team.

Dayton took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a seven-yard run by Bobby Recker and Paul Spakowski's extra point. Houston responded immediately with a 65-yard, six-play drive, with Shannon scoring on a 15-yard run with 10 seconds left in the first. Owens' extra point try failed, and UH trailed 7-6 after one.

The Flyers added two more scores in the second period, including a touchdown with 44 seconds left in the half on a 36-yard pass from Frank Siggins to Ed Currin to cap a 70-yard drive. Houston countered with one score, on a Shannon 19-yard gallop, and the Cougars trailed 21-13 at the half.

The Houston defense, led by Jack Howton, asserted itself in the second half. Howton intercepted a pair of passes and recovered a fumble as the Cougar defense limited Dayton to just five yards rushing in the stanza.

UH pulled within one point, 21-20, on Shannon's third rushing TD, a one-yard run at 9:40 of the third quarter. His run ended a seven-play, 72-yard drive, and Owens added the kick.

Another Shannon run provided the final points of the game and gave UH its first and only lead of the game. The senior's 10-yard burst with 7:50 remaining in the third period provided the final margin as neither team was able to score in the fourth quarter.

1962 TANGERINE BOWL

Houston 49, Miami (Ohio) 21

Dec. 22, 1962 • Tangerine Bowl • Orlando, Fla.

Under first-year head coach Bill Yeoman, Houston scored five straight touchdowns, including four in the second quarter, to power the Cougars to a 49-21 victory over Miami of Ohio in the 17th Annual Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida.

Senior quarterback Billy Roland led the Cougars offense by completing 11-of-17 passes for 199 yards and three touchdowns to earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award.

After Miami missed a field goal on its first drive, the Redskins took possession on the UH 28-yard line after an interception. UM took advantage of the turnover with a nine-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead.

After tying the game late in the first quarter on Joe Lopasky's three-yard run and Bill McMillan's extra-point, Houston's Bobby Brezina scored a pair of touchdowns to start the UH onslaught. The Cougars took advantage of an interception by Bill Van Osdel, scoring on two plays from the Miami six. On Houston's next drive, Roland hit Brezina with a 44-yard touchdown bomb to give UH a 21-7 lead.

The UH defense held again, and on the ensuing Miami punt, Lopasky took the ball back 70 yards for a touchdown and a 28-7 UH lead. The Cougars closed out the half with a 60-yard touchdown drive, ending with a four-yard pass from Roland to McMillan with 18 seconds left in the half. Houston took a 35-7 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Miami scored with 4:50 left in the third quarter to close the gap to 35-14 before Lopasky notched his third of four touchdowns on the day on a one-yard run. His score finished a 78-yard, six-play drive, while McMillan's seventh PAT established a new school record.

Each team added a touchdown in the final stanza, Houston scoring on a 14-yard Roland to Lopasky hook-up.

BOWL HISTORY

1969 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#17 Houston 36, #12 Auburn 7

Dec. 31, 1969 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

A match-up between two of the top offensive teams in the country saw the Houston defense carry the day as the Cougars shut down Auburn to win the 1969 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, 36-7, in the Astrodome. The crowd of 55,203 saw Bill Yeoman's Cougars finish the year with their ninth straight victory and a No. 12 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Houston halfback Jim Strong gained 184 yards on 32 carries to lead the UH offense and gain MVP honors. Defensively, Glen Lewis and Ronny Peacock were the Cougars' stars on a unit which allowed Auburn only one yard rushing in the game. Lewis recorded eight tackles and blocked a field goal while Peacock was in on four tackles and deflected four passes.

Auburn's Terry Beasly fumbled the opening kickoff and Houston safety Nick Holm recovered to set up the Cougars' first touchdown, a one-yard run by quarterback Gary Mullins just 3:30 into the game. Following an Auburn punt, the Cougars drove 70 yards in 14 plays and Carlos Lopez kicked a 27-yard field goal to give UH a 10-0 lead at the start of the second quarter.

The UH defense stymied Auburn and sophomore quarterback Pat Sullivan again on the Tigers' next possession, forcing a punt. On first-and-10 from its own 16-yard line, Strong galloped 74 yards to the Auburn 10, setting up Houston's second touchdown, which he scored on a one-yard run. Lopez' PAT missed, but Houston led 16-0 with 11:44 remaining in the half.

The teams traded punts until Auburn's Mickey Zofko completed a 36-yard halfback option pass to receiver Connie Frederick for the Tigers' only score. At halftime, Houston led 16-7.

The Tigers would get no closer. Houston scored 20 points on three touchdowns in the second half. Ted Heiskell's one-yard touchdown run came at the end of an eight-play, 71-yard drive. The two-point conversion pass failed, but UH led 22-7.

After a scoreless remainder of the quarter, Houston put the Tigers away on its first drive of the final period. Strong scored his second touchdown of the day, on a 12-yard run. A 20-yard pass from back-up quarterback Rusty Clark to Tommy Mozisek with 35 seconds left provided the final margin.

The two teams combined to break or tie 22 Bluebonnet Bowl records. Houston totaled 516 yards on 83 plays in the game, while Auburn netted just 189 total yards, including 188 passing.

1971 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#8 Colorado 29, #15 Houston 17

Dec. 31, 1971 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Colorado's 16 second-quarter points lifted the Buffaloes to a 29-17 victory over 15th-ranked Houston before a crowd of 54,720 in the Astrodome. The loss was Houston's first in four bowl games and gave the Cougars a 9-3 final record.

Colorado tailback Charlie Davis led CU by rushing for a bowl-record 202 yards on 37 carries while Houston turned the ball over three times. Cougar tailback Robert Newhouse led the UH attack with 168 yards rushing on 35 carries and scored both Houston touchdowns on the day. Houston defensive lineman Butch Brezina was named the Cougars' Most Outstanding Player with 10 total tackles and two passes broken up.

Davis put the Buffs on top early with a 27-yard touchdown run on Colorado's first possession after a 70-yard, nine-play drive. J.B. Dean added the extra point to give CU a 7-0 lead.

Houston responded with a 79-yard, 15-play drive. Newhouse scored from the two after gaining 42 yards on the drive, and Ricky Terrell kicked the PAT to tie the game at seven. UH linebacker Bill Hamrick intercepted Colorado quarterback Ken Johnson to set up the Cougars' second touchdown, a five-yard Newhouse run with 1:14 left in the first quarter.

Colorado got the ball back and drove 61 yards in 10 plays, with Larry Brunson scoring on a five-yard pass from Johnson to pull CU within one. J.B. Dean's extra point failed and the Cougars clung to a 14-13 lead.

Colorado took the lead for good on its next possession. Johnson's 38-yard run on the quarterback keeper keyed an 80-yard, 15-play drive and Dean hit a 32-yard field goal with 5:03 left in the half to give CU a 16-13 lead.

After Houston fumbled the ball on the kickoff, Colorado went on the attack again. Davis scored on a one-yard run, and Dean added the PAT for a 23-14 lead that would prove to be insurmountable.

Houston drove to the Colorado 14 to open the third period, but tight end Riley Odoms fumbled and the Buffs' Lorne Richardson recovered to stymie the Cougars. The teams traded punts until Houston took advantage of a Davis fumble, Terrell hitting a 29-yard field goal for the only score of the third.

The Cougars would get no closer as Johnson scored for the Buffaloes with 3:48 left in the game to account for the final 12-point margin.

BOWL HISTORY

1973 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#14 Houston 47, Tulane 7

Dec. 29, 1973 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Houston topped off its winningest season ever by overwhelming Tulane, 47-7, in the 15th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl. With its victory over the Green Wave, the Cougars finished the season 11-1, which still ranks as one of the top two years in UH history.

Bill Yeoman's potent Triple Veer offense was at its best again in the Bluebonnet Bowl as a pair of players — Marshall Johnson and Donnie McGraw — gained over 100 yards rushing in the game. In all, the Cougars piled up 655 yards of total offense, including 402 on the ground. Flanker Bryan Willingham collected 105 yards on three catches while quarterback D.C. Nobles completed eight-of-13 passes for 201 yards.

Johnson gave early notice that it would be a long night for Tulane by speeding 75 yards on the Cougars' second offensive play to give UH a 7-0 lead. The Cougars extended that lead to 21-0 in the second period on a pair of Leonard Parker runs.

Tulane got on the scoreboard just before halftime on a 32-yard pass from Buddy Gilbert to Tom Fortner, cutting Houston's margin to 21-7 at the half.

The Cougars tallied four more rushing touchdowns in the second half while the UH defense held Tulane scoreless. Linebacker Deryl McGallion led the Houston defense on the day and was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Houston forced nine Tulane punts and allowed the Green Wave only 10 first downs and 173 total yards on the day. Cougar defenders picked off four Tulane passes.

Quarterback Nobles scored on a keeper with 6:42 left in the third period to extend Houston's lead to 28-7. After a turnover, McGraw scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard run with 5:28 left in the third.

McGraw added a 32-yard touchdown run to start the fourth quarter while backup QB David Husmann ended the scoring with a seven-yard run in the fourth.

A crowd of 44,358 saw UH post its record-setting 11th win and finish the year ranked ninth in the final Associated Press poll.

1974 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#15 Houston 31, #13 NC State 31

Dec. 23, 1974 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

In an offensive shootout at the 16th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl, Houston and North Carolina State combined to score 35 points in the final quarter on the way to a 31-31 tie before a crowd of 35,122 at the Astrodome.

The crowd saw the two teams pile up 876 yards of total offense, including 479 yards on the ground, with 45 first downs. Houston's John Housman gained 134 yards rushing on 21 carries and added a pair of touchdown runs as UH finished the year with an 8-3-1 overall record.

The first quarter was far from an indication of things to come as NC State earned the only points of the period on a 37-yard field goal by John Huff with 6:48 on the clock.

The Cougars evened the score early in the second stanza on Lennard Coplin's 21-yard field goal. Housman gained 38 yards on the drive that stalled at the NC State three.

The Wolfpack took a 10-3 halftime lead, but had been out-gained by UH, 175-123. Houston tied the score at 10 on a one-yard run by Housman at 9:32 of the third quarter. NC State came right back with a scoring drive of its own, with Dave Buckey hooking up with fullback Stan Fritts for the seven-yard touchdown pass to take the lead.

Then, the fireworks began. Houston tied the score on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 10-yard Johnson run, capping a 75-yard drive. Two possessions later, the Cougars took their first lead of the game on a Bluebonnet Bowl record 73-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Bubba McGallion to split end Eddie Foster. Coplin added the extra point and UH led, 24-17.

The Cougars extended their lead to 31-17 after an interception and 41-yard return by free safety Joe Rust gave UH the ball on the NC State 16-yard line. Four plays later, Housman hit paydirt on a five-yard run and UH led by two touchdowns.

NC State came back after a McGallion fumble stopped a UH drive. A couple of Buckey to George Gantt completions set up fullback Tommy London for a 9-yard touchdown run with 3:38 left in the game. The Wolfpack's 2-point conversion attempt failed, and Houston held on to a 31-23 lead.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by State and after two plays netted 19 yards, Buckey hit tight end Pat Hovance with a 27-yard pass to the one. He scored on a quarterback sneak and Fritts ran for the 2-point conversion to tie the game.

Houston's comeback attempt died when McGallion was sacked and the Cougars punted with 27 seconds remaining. Buckey's last-ditch pass was intercepted by Rust, who fell to the ground as time ran out, ending one of the most exciting bowl games in school history.

BOWL HISTORY

1977 COTTON BOWL

#6 Houston 30, #4 Maryland 21

Jan. 1, 1977 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston stunned the Southwest Conference by winning the conference title in its first year of competition in the league, earning its first trip to a New Year's Day bowl. Then, the Cougars stunned fifth-ranked and undefeated Maryland, 30-21, in the 41st Annual Cotton Bowl Classic to achieve its highest final national ranking ever.

UH jumped out to a quick 21-0 lead on the Terps, and that lead, as well as a strong defensive showing in the second half, carried the Cougars to victory. Running backs Alois Blackwell and Dyral Thomas each gained over 100 yards with Blackwell's 149 yards on 22 carries leading Houston. His success came against a Maryland defense ranked second in the nation in rushing defense, and he was named the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. UH cornerback Mark Mohr, who made seven tackles, broke up two passes, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble, was the Defensive MVP.

Houston's first score came on an 11-yard run by Thomas with 6:27 to go in the first quarter. The Cougars drove 80 yards in 11 plays with Blackwell's 23-yard gain highlighting the march.

Mohr blocked Maryland punter Mike Sochko's kick, giving UH possession on the 38. Two plays later, Blackwell broke through a hole and went 33 yards for the touchdown.

Another Maryland mistake, this one a fumble on the kickoff recovered by Mohr, returned the ball to Houston on the Terps 24-yard line. Five straight rushing plays resulted in Blackwell's one-yard run and a 21-0 UH lead. Maryland had surrendered only 22 total points in the first quarter in the first 11 games of the year.

Maryland came back with a six-yard scoring run by quarterback Mark Manges. Both defenses tightened and the teams exchanged punts until Houston began a drive at its own three-yard line with 3:17 left in the half. A pair of runs by Davis and Blackwell netted 29 yards, and on second-and-six from the Maryland 33, split end Don Bass grabbed Davis' pass (one of just two first-half passes) and went the distance. Lennard Coplin's kick failed, but Houston owned a 27-7 halftime lead.

Maryland drove to the Houston four on its first possession of the second half, but on fourth and goal UM wingback Chuck White was stopped short of the goal line by UH's Vincent Greenwood. Thomas fumbled, giving Maryland the ball on the UH 35. This time the Terps converted with an 11-yard completion from Manges to tight end Eric Sievers.

Another UH fumble put Maryland on the Houston 30 three series later, and again the Terps capitalized. Fullback Tim Wilson went over from the one, and the extra point closed the UH lead to 27-21 with 8:46 left in the game.

After a punt by each team, Houston regained the ball on its own seven and embarked on a 14-play, 81-yard drive that would result in a game-clinching field goal by Coplin. The key play came on fourth-and-one on the Maryland 41 with 1:56 left when Thomas went 32 yards for the first down. When the drive stalled at the 12, Coplin hit a 28-yard field goal to seal the win and the No. 4 final ranking.

1979 COTTON BOWL

#10 Notre Dame 35, #9 Houston 34

Jan. 1, 1979 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

In bone-chilling cold, Notre Dame made one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history, scoring 23 points in the final 7:37 to record a 35-34 win over Houston in the 43rd Annual Cotton Bowl Classic. The game will be forever remembered, not only for the cold and the comeback, but as the "coming out" party for Fighting Irish quarterback Joe Montana, who would go on to become one of the best quarterbacks in NFL history.

The Irish scored the game-winning touchdown with no time left on the clock when Montana tossed an eight-yard pass to split end Kris Haines. Kicker Joe Unis' PAT provided the difference in a heart-wrenching loss for UH.

Houston had scored 34 straight points after Notre Dame took a 12-0 lead in the first quarter. The Irish scored on a three-yard Montana run and a one-yard rush by fullback Pete Buchanan on successive drives in the first to take the lead. Both conversion attempts failed.

After ND's Dave Waymer fumbled a punt, Houston gained the ball on the Notre Dame 12, and two plays later, quarterback Danny Davis threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to split end Willis Adams. The score stood at 12-7 at the end of the first quarter.

A bevy of fumbles, interceptions and near interceptions marked second quarter action with most of the balls bouncing Houston's way. On fourth-and-goal, fullback Randy Love bulled over from the one to cap a six-play, 21-yard drive and give UH a 14-12 lead. Kenny Hatfield intercepted a Montana pass on the next possession and his 25-yard return put the Cougars on the Notre Dame 25. Hatfield was true on the 21-yard field goal.

Another Montana interception led to Hatfield's second three-pointer of the quarter, and a 20-12 UH halftime lead. The field goal, with just three seconds left in the half, came after a 39-yard, seven-play drive highlighted by a 16-yard completion from Davis to Eric Herring. Hatfield hit the cross bar, but his 34-yarder bounced over and was good.

Houston scored on a pair of Davis runs in the third period. His first score, from two yards out, ended a 38-yard, eight-play drive. UH's Bobby Harrison blocked Notre Dame kicker Dick Boushka's punt and the Cougars turned that turnover into seven points on Davis' five-yard touchdown run at 4:40.

The fourth quarter was a battle of field position until Notre Dame blocked UH punter Jay Wyatt's kick and took over on the Houston 11. Three plays resulted in a loss of three yards and on fourth-and-13 from the UH 14, Montana's pass was incomplete. However, UH could not move the ball, and Wyatt's next punt was also blocked. This one was recovered by Irish strong safety Steve Cichy and returned 33 yards for a Notre Dame touchdown. The two point conversion from Montana to Vagas Ferguson was good and Houston's lead stood at 34-20.

Notre Dame's defense held, forcing another Wyatt punt. Montana completed two passes for 47 yards, then used a pass interference call to reach the Houston three. On third down from the two, Montana scampered in for the score. He then hit Haines with the two-point conversion pass to make it a six-point game.

Houston was forced to punt again, but the Irish's next drive ended when Montana fumbled with less than two minutes on the clock and UH's Tommy Ebner recovered. Houston advanced to its 29, and on fourth-and-one, sent running back Emmett King over left tackle to try and run out the clock. King was stopped for no gain, and Notre Dame and Montana had 29 yards to go in 28 seconds.

Montana gained 11 yards around right end on first down, then passed for 10 to Haines. After an incompletion, the Notre Dame QB hit Haines from eight yards out for the tying score. Unis' PAT completed the comeback.

BOWL HISTORY

1980 COTTON BOWL

#8 Houston 17, #7 Nebraska 14

Jan. 1, 1980 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston quarterback Terry Elston hit Eric Herring with a six-yard touchdown pass with 12 seconds left to give the Cougars a 17-14 victory over seventh-ranked Nebraska in the 1980 Cotton Bowl. The victory lifted UH to an 11-1 record on the year, tying the most wins in school history, and a No. 5 final national ranking.

The Houston defense limited a potent Nebraska offense to just 227 yards on the day, less than half of their season average. The Cornhuskers, featuring Jarvis Redwine and I.M. Hipp, gained just 136 yards on 41 carries and tallied only 13 first downs in the game. Elston led Houston with 87 yards rushing on 22 carries while fullback John Newhouse added 64 yards. Herring caught five passes for 51 yards.

Nebraska jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a nine-yard scoring run by Redwine. The teams then traded punts until Houston tied the game on Elston's eight-yard run and Kenny Hatfield's extra point at 12:17 of the second quarter. Elston's 27-yard pass to Lonell Phea on third-and-six to the Nebraska 15 proved to be the key play of the drive.

Through the next two quarters, the teams traded punts and turnovers with neither team reaching its opponents' 30. The entire third quarter, in fact, was a series of "three and outs."

Then Houston embarked on a 59-yard, 13-play drive that resulted in a 41-yard Hatfield field goal. Again, Elston hit Phea for a gain of 20 on the drive, which reached the Nebraska 24 before Hatfield's kick. Houston took a 10-7 lead with 8:25 left.

Houston forced another Nebraska punt, but gave the ball back one play later when Newhouse fumbled. From first down on the Houston 31, the Cornhuskers drove to the six, where Quinn hit tight end Jeff Finn with a six-yard touchdown pass. Dean Sukup added the extra point to give NU a 14-10 lead with less than four minutes to play.

Starting on its own 34, the Cougars began a purposeful march downfield. Twice, they converted on third downs until reaching the Nebraska 20 with 59 seconds to play. An Elston to Herring hookup gained 11, but the next three plays netted just five yards, and the Cougars faced fourth-and-goal from the six with 19 seconds left.

Then Elston found Herring cutting across the goal line for the touchdown, and Hatfield added the extra point to give UH a come-from-behind Cotton Bowl victory of its own.

1980 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Houston 35, Navy 0

Dec. 14, 1980 • Giants Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

Houston put on one of its most impressive offensive and defensive performances of the season in downing Navy, 35-0, in Garden State Bowl III at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

Running back Terald Clark sparked the offense with 163 yards on 26 carries and three touchdowns, while All-America linebacker Leonard Mitchell made key tackles, recovered a fumble and broke up a pass to lead UH defensively. The Cougars gained 405 of their 450 yards on the ground, while limiting Navy to just 200 yards in total offense. Navy had brought the nation's sixth-rated defense and 10th-best rushing defense into the game, but turnovers and special teams blunders cost the Midshipmen.

Houston scored on its first drive, going 31 yards on eight plays after a Navy fumble to take a 7-0 lead. Clark scored on a one-yard run and Jeff Shaffer added the PAT.

A blocked punt by UH's Leo Truss helped lead to Houston's next score, a one-yard effort by quarterback Terry Elston. Clark gained 25 yards on the 43-yard drive as all 10 plays were on the ground. The Cougars took a 14-0 lead after one quarter.

Houston added two more touchdowns in the second period, while Navy kicker Steve Fehr missed a 27-yard field goal, spoiling the Middies' best scoring chance of the day. At 7:51 of the second quarter, Houston's David Barrett scored on a 14-yard run after a 69-yard, seven-play drive.

Navy fumbled the ball on the kickoff and UH's Calvin Eason recovered on the Navy 26. Clark went all 26 yards on the first play behind a block by guard Jeff Faniel, and Elston scored the two-point conversion on a keeper to give UH a 28-0 halftime lead.

The Cougars scored the final points of the contest on their first drive of the second half. After a 71-yard, 13-play march, Clark scored from the two to notch his third touchdown of the day and give UH an insurmountable 35-0 lead.

Clark, a senior, was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

BOWL HISTORY

1981 SUN BOWL

Oklahoma 40, Houston 14

Dec. 26, 1981 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Oklahoma scored 30 points in the fourth quarter to break open a close game and hand Houston its worst bowl defeat ever, 40-14, at the 47th Annual Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

Oklahoma's Fred Sims gained 181 yards on 15 carries and quarterback Darrell Shepard added 107 yards and two rushing touchdowns to lead the Sooners. UH quarterback Lionel Wilson completed 17-of-28 passes for 216 yards to lead the Cougar offense, but Houston committed four turnovers in the game, including one very costly one.

A fumble on what looked like a sure Houston touchdown proved to be the turning point in the game. Following the fumble, Oklahoma scored on four straight possessions to cement the victory.

Trailing 10-7, UH halfback Robert Durham caught a Wilson pass at the OU 47-yard line and had open territory to the end zone. But Oklahoma defender Elbert Watts knocked the ball loose at the three and it went out of the end zone for a touchback. Oklahoma took over on its 20 and advanced quickly to the Cougar nine on Shepard's 42-yard run. Three plays later, Shepard went one yard up the middle for the touchdown and a 17-7 Oklahoma lead.

From there the wheels began to come off. After a 14-yard Houston punt, Oklahoma's Michael Keeling ended a Sooner drive by kicking his second field goal of the day – this from 49 yards out – to boost the Sooners' lead to 20-7.

The Cougars' next possession ended in a fumble, and Sims soon broke a 30-yard run for a score and a 27-7 Oklahoma lead. Houston answered with its last touchdown of the day, going 74 yards on 13 plays. Donald Jordan scored on a six-yard run and Mike Clendenen added the point after, but UH trailed 27-14 with less than three minutes remaining.

Oklahoma recovered UH's onside kick attempt and Sims ripped off another long run, this one of 48 yards, to set up Ron Mills' two-yard score. Keeling missed the PAT, but it was the only thing that went wrong for OU in the quarter. The Sooners scored their final touchdown on a 28-yard interception return by defensive end John Truitt, ending a nightmare quarter for Houston.

Shepard was named the game's MVP. Houston ended its season, the third straight in which it went to a bowl game, with a 7-4-1 record.

1985 COTTON BOWL

#8 Boston College 45, Houston 28

Jan. 1, 1985 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie brought his Boston College Eagles to Dallas, but it was the rushing of Flutie's backfield mates that proved the difference in BC's 45-28 victory over Houston in the 49th Annual Cotton Bowl.

Flutie threw for 180 yards and three touchdowns, but completed only 13-of-37 throws on the day and was intercepted twice. Running backs Troy Stradford and Mike Strachan teamed to doom Houston; Stradford gained 196 yards on 20 carries while Strachan added 91 yards on 23 rushes and was named the game's MVP.

The game was a series of scoring runs. Boston College would jump out to an advantage, and Houston would battle back. The pattern continued until the fourth quarter when the Eagles would not let UH answer after it extended a 31-28 lead to the final margin of 45-28.

Boston College jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter advantage on a pair of Flutie touchdown passes. A 63-yard completion to Kelvin Martin started the scoring, and an eight-yard pass from Flutie to Stradford followed a UH fumble. Houston answered immediately when Earl Allen took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown. Mike Clendenen kicked the extra point, and the Cougars trailed 14-7.

An interception by the Eagles led to a 31-yard field goal by BC's Kevin Snow at the end of the first quarter.

Boston College added two touchdowns to extend its lead to 31-7. Flutie hit Gerard Phelan, who caught seven passes in the first half, over the middle for a 13-yard touchdown after driving BC 53 yards in five plays. UH quarterback Gerald Landry was then intercepted on Houston's next play, and once again Boston College capitalized. Strachan scored on a two-yard run after Flutie had picked up 27 yards on a scramble to the two.

Houston came back before the half when Landry hit Larry Shepherd with a 15-yard touchdown pass. Landry's 38-yard completion to tight end Carl Hilton was the biggest play of the UH scoring drive.

The Cougars made it close in the third. After five punts to start the period, Houston mounted a scoring march, thanks to a 26-yard Landry to Hilton completion and a 33-yard run by Raymond Tate to set up Tate's two-yard touchdown jaunt. Then, Audrey McMillian intercepted a Flutie pass at the Boston College 25 and took it back for the touchdown, bringing the Cougars within three at 31-28.

On Houston's next possession, a couple of costly penalties hurt the Cougars and slowed their momentum. Boston College, uncharacteristically, went to its running game, and nine straight rushes resulted in a four-yard Strachan touchdown and a 38-28 BC lead.

Another turnover stopped the Cougars and they were unable to take advantage of Flutie's second interception of the half. Stradford provided the final margin when he scored on an 18-yard run with 1:08 remaining.

Hilton caught five passes for 97 yards for UH, which finished the season with a 7-5 record.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 Washington State 24, #14 Houston 22
Dec. 25, 1988 • Aloha Bowl • Honolulu

In a battle of Cougars, Washington State scored 24 points in the second quarter and shut down Houston's potent run-and-shoot offense to claim a 24-22 win in the 1988 Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

Washington State piled up 216 yards rushing and added 154 through the air while holding UH to 68 rushing yards and 309 yards overall. Tailback Steve Broussard led WSU with 139 yards on the ground, and QB Timm Rosenbach threw for 306.

James Dixon started the game off well for UH by taking the opening kickoff 84 yards to the Washington State 15-yard line. The Cougars advanced to the 10 before Roman Anderson's 27-yard field goal gave UH a 3-0 lead.

Washington State drove to the UH four, but Rosenbach was sacked, and his fumble was recovered by Houston's Keith Jenkins. The teams traded punts until WSU's Vernon Todd intercepted an André Ware pass at his own 45-yard line. Broussard bobbled a handoff and fumbled at the UH five, but WSU flanker Victor Wood recovered and took the ball the remaining five yards for the touchdown.

After forcing a Houston punt, WSU started on an 80-yard drive. Rosenbach hit Wood from 15 yards out with 8:39 left in the half, and Jason Hanson's PAT made it WSU 14, UH 3. Ware's next pass was intercepted and returned to the Houston 15. Hanson's 33-yard field goal extended the Cougars' lead to 17-3.

Houston pulled to within eight on its next possession when Ware hit Jason Phillips for a 44-yard completion and Chuck Weatherspoon scored on a one-yard run for UH's first touchdown of the day. However, Roman Anderson missed what would prove to be a crucial extra point attempt following Weatherspoon's score.

Washington State answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive before halftime. Rosenbach scored from the one, and WSU led 24-9 at the break.

Houston's Cougars were not able to mount a drive in the third quarter until David Dacus replaced Ware with 6:07 on the clock. He quickly hit Kevin Mason with a 53-yard bomb down the right sideline. After a failed conversion pass, Houston trailed 24-15.

Washington State penetrated to the Houston eight, where Alton Montgomery stepped in front of a Rosenbach pass at the goal line and took it all the way back to the WSU 28 for a 72-yard return. Weatherspoon and Dacus combined to take the Cougars the rest of the way, with Weatherspoon earning the touchdown on a shovel pass from Dacus. After the Anderson PAT, Houston trailed by two with 13:16 left in the game.

Washington State's next drive stalled on the UH 34, where Rosenbach's pass on fourth and three fell incomplete. Houston was unable to sustain a drive and the teams exchanged punts. Houston got the ball back with 5:16 left and drove from its own 20 to the WSU 31. From there, Dacus hit Dixon with a 21-yard pass to the 10. Dixon eluded one tackle, but was hit by linebacker Tuineau Alipate and fumbled. The ball rolled to the five, where it was recovered by WSU's Artie Holmes with 2:44 left. WSU ran out the clock to secure the 24-22 victory.

1996 LIBERTY BOWL

#23 Syracuse 30, Houston 17
Dec. 27, 1996 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

Houston's return to post-season play in the 38th Annual St. Jude Liberty Bowl marked a remarkable turnaround for the UH program under Kim Helton.

The Cougars headed into Memphis as one of the hottest teams in the country having won their last three games of the season to earn a share of the Conference USA championship.

On this day the rushing attack of the Orangemen proved to be too much for Houston's defense as UH fell to Syracuse 30-17 in front of 49,163 fans at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Syracuse struck first after the initial kickoff with a four-play, 80-yard touchdown scoring drive. Quarterback Donovan McNabb scored from one yard out to put SU on top 7-0.

Houston returned the favor on its first drive of the game with a four-play, 77-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Chuck Clements hit tailback Antowain Smith twice, including a touchdown reception of 21 yards to even the score at 7-7. A Clements to Scott Regimbald 51-yard pass put the Cougars in scoring position to set up Smith's reception.

With 9:02 left in the second period, the SU rushing attack struck again when fullback Rob Konrad reached the end zone to up the score to 14-7. Later in the quarter Syracuse extended its lead to 16-7 after a snap sailed over the head of Houston punter Ignacio Sauceda as he stood deep in UH territory.

Houston came back before halftime as Smith rushed three times for 63 yards, including a 51-yard jaunt from UH's 46-yard line to SU's 3. He finished the drive with a three-yard touchdown run to pull Houston within two points going into the lockerroom.

The second half was far less eventful as both teams went scoreless in the third quarter. It was not until the clock read 13:52 in the final period that Syracuse's McNabb scored his second touchdown of the day, on a two-yard run, to give the Orangemen a 23-14 lead.

Houston was only able to put three more points on the board as Sebastian Villarreal hit a 23-yard field goal with 10:50 left in the game.

As it turned out, the ground game of Syracuse was just too much for the Cougar defense. Thomas rushed into the endzone from six yards out to put an end to the day's scoring at 30-17.

BOWL HISTORY

2003 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

Hawai'i 54, Houston 48 (3 OT)

Dec. 25, 2003 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

In an "Instant Classic" performance, the University of Houston and the University of Hawai'i battled for over four hours and three overtimes before the Warriors concluded Christmas Day with a 54-48 win over the Cougars.

The fact that the game made it to overtime was a testament to the never-say-die attitude of the Cougars. With Hawai'i ahead by seven in the waning moments of regulation, the Cougars eventful season looked to be over as the Warriors lined up for a 29-yard field with just over a minute to play. When the field-goal attempt went wide, the Cougars still had a chance. And, the Red and White did not disappoint.

In what will be described as "Vincent's Run", the Cougars tied the game up on a miraculous play. Facing a third-and-11 from their own 19-yard line with less than 30 seconds left to play, Kevin Kolb found Vincent Marshall on a quick pass that Marshall turned into an 81-yard touchdown as he outraced the Warrior secondary to tie the game.

Both teams scored touchdowns in both the first and second overtimes, setting the stage for the dramatic third overtime. The Warriors took the lead on an eight-yard run by Michael Brewster, but UH's Will Gulley intercepted Hawai'i's two-point attempt.

The Cougars took over on their possession, needing a touchdown to send it to a fourth overtime, but more importantly, could get the two points needed for the victory; however, the Cougars failed to convert on fourth down.

Houston jumped on the board first after taking the opening kickoff and driving down the field to score first. Kolb hooked up with Chad McCullar from 34 yards out to give Houston a quick 7-0 lead. A Dustin Bell field goal on the next possession increased the lead to 10-0.

The Warriors tied the score up by scoring the game's next 10 points on a 19-yard field goal and a 48 yard pass from Timmy Chang, who relieved starter Jason Whieldon, to Clifton Herbert.

The Cougars regained the lead on the first of three rushing touchdowns by Jackie Battle, and then increased their advantage to 20-10 with Bell's second field goal on the afternoon.

Hawai'i took control of the game by scoring 17 unanswered points, including two more scoring tosses by Chang. After an exchange of touchdowns by Houston and Hawai'i, the Warriors took the lead again when Chang hooked up with Jason Ribers from four yards out with less than 10 minutes to play, which set the stage for Marshall's heroics.

Battle was named the MVP for the Cougars after rushing for a career-high 124 yards and three touchdowns.

2005 FORT WORTH BOWL

Kansas 42, Houston 13

Dec. 23, 2005 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth , Texas

Jason Swanson threw for 307 yards and four touchdowns, one more than he had in the regular season, and the Kansas Jayhawks beat Houston 42-13 in the Fort Worth Bowl for their first winning season and first bowl victory in 10 years.

Tailback Jon Cornish turned two shovel passes from Swanson into scores, and also rushed for 101 yards on 16 carries. Brian Murph, who hadn't returned a kick all season, turned a muffed punt into an 85-yard score in the first quarter that put the Jayhawks (7-5) ahead to stay. He also caught a 48-yard TD pass.

Houston (6-6) has lost six straight bowls since winning the 1980 Garden State Bowl.

Swanson started his fifth straight game, going 19-for-29 in his fourth victory and earning MVP honors. The senior was the third starting quarterback used by Kansas this year. He hurt his leg during the preseason, but took over in late October after Adam Barrman and Brian Luke struggled.

Cougars junior quarterback Kevin Kolb started his 36th straight game and became the career total offense leader at the school where David Klingler and André Ware also threw passes. Kolb was 20-of-44 passing for 214 yards with three interceptions, all turned into scores by Kansas.

Kolb had a 1-yard sneak for Houston's only touchdown. The Cougars were held to a season-worst 244 total yards after leading Conference USA with 457 a game during the regular season. Kansas had 538 yards.

Charlton Keith got between Kolb and his intended receiver on a quick-out pass in the fourth quarter. He jumped up and grabbed the pass, then sprinted 14 yards and dived into the end zone.

Theo Barnes had two interceptions for the Jayhawks. The first set up Cornish's 30-yard TD catch in the third quarter, and the second led to Murph's TD catch with 9 minutes left for the final touchdown.

Five minutes into the game, Murph muffed a punt. The ball rolled several yards away from him before he picked it up, circled around several defenders and ran all the way to the left sideline. He then cut back across the field and slipped past a tackler into the open.

Swanson had completions of 31 and 19 yards on the first two plays, but the Jayhawks didn't get another first down on the opening drive. The Cougars then went three-and-out before Justin Laird's 57-yard punt that Murph muffed.

Cornish's first TD was a 13-yard play in the second quarter. Mark Simmons added a 32-yard score in the third when he caught Swanson's pass near the 20, then was free when he twisted inside and the defender slipped.

2006 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

South Carolina 44, Houston 36

Dec. 29, 2006 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

With 56,103 in attendance, the University of Houston football team took to the field December 29, 2006 at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. Houston faced off against the South Carolina Gamecocks of the SEC in just the third-ever meeting between the two schools.

After scoring four touchdowns in the first half, Houston was unable to hold off the Gamecocks, falling 44-36, in what CollegeFootballNews.com named the 4th-best bowl game of 2006.

The Cougars took an early lead off a 32-yard pass from Kevin Kolb to Vincent Marshall on their first drive of the game. But, the Gamecocks responded late in the first quarter on their second drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Cory Boyd.

Down a touchdown in the second quarter, Kolb connected with Mark Hafner on a 4-yard pass to even the game at 14 all. Houston would regain the lead with 2:09 left in the first half when Jackie Battle scored from 42 yards out, running untouched to the end zone.

With the first half winding down, Houston scored again when Marshall broke away for a 77-yard touchdown run. It was the longest catch in the Liberty Bowl since 1997, when Pittsburgh had an 89-yard pass against Southern Miss.

With 55 points scored in the first half, Houston and South Carolina combined for the highest scoring half in Liberty Bowl history.

The third quarter proved to be all about defense. South Carolina scored the only points of the quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Ryan Succop. They took that momentum into the fourth quarter, scoring two touchdowns. The Gamecock's Blake Mitchell connected with Kenny McKinley on both scoring plays.

The Cougars pulled within eight points with just under six minutes left in the game, when Battle scored on a 3-yard run and Anthony Alridge completed the two-point conversion; however, it wouldn't be enough as South Carolina held off Houston for the win.

"We were very excited and anxious about the game, and I think we performed well as a football team. In a couple of instances we had a couple of unforced errors that I will take the fall for. But, just like our team has all season long; we battled hard. Our guys played hard, they fought hard, they believed. That's an inspiration to me as a coach," head coach Art Briles said after the game.

The two teams combined for 1,039 yards of total offense, the most ever in Liberty Bowl history. Houston gained 527 yards and the Gamecocks had 512.

Kolb was named Houston's Outstanding Offensive Player after completing 26-of-39 passes for 386 yards and three touchdowns. With his three tackles, one interception and one pass break up, Willie Gaston was named Houston's Outstanding Defensive Player.

2007 TEXAS BOWL

TCU 20, Houston 13

Dec. 28, 2007 • Reliant Stadium • Houston

The Cougars had a late rally come up short and dropped a 20-13 decision to TCU in the 2007 Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium.

Houston pulled within seven after a 32-yard field goal from T.J. Lawrence with 1:57 left in the game. TCU (8-5) won its eighth-straight game over Houston, dating back to 1993.

The Cougars got the ball back with 1:32 left after a three-and-out stand by the defense and started from their own two-yard line.

Case Keenum engineered a seven-play 79-yard drive that had the Cougars at the TCU 19-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. UH had three shots at the end zone but came up short on all three.

Donnie Avery made four catches for 60 yards in the march down the field. He finished with 10 catches for 120 yards.

Keenum threw a fade into the end zone that was just over the finger tips of Jeron Harvey and couldn't connect on a jump ball to L.J. Castile. On the game's final play, Keenum was flushed out of the pocket and hit as he threw by TCU's Chase Ortiz and the ball ended up in the dirt, handing the Cougars their eighth-straight bowl defeat.

Keenum finished 23-of-38 for a career best and Texas Bowl record 335 yards and a touchdown. He was sacked five times on the night. He also set bowl records for completions (23), attempts (38) and longest touchdown pass (67 yards).

Rocky Schwartz led all players with a Texas Bowl record 16 tackles including 15 solo stops.

Leading 10-7 at halftime, the Cougars struggled offensively in the third quarter tallying 19 yards and one first down.

TCU tied things up at 10 after Chris Manfredini hit a 29-yard field goal with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

The Horned Frogs added 10 more points in the fourth quarter after a seven-yard run by Justin Watts with 14:28 left and a 36-yard field goal from Manfredini with 7:28 left in the game.

The Cougars opened up the scoring in the game late in the first quarter after Keenum connected with Andre Kohn on a 67-yard touchdown strike. The play capped a two-play drive that took just 57 seconds. It was the longest play from scrimmage in Texas Bowl history.

TCU tied things up with 10:24 left in the half after Andy Dalton called an 11-play 75-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown scamper. Dalton, the Texas Bowl MVP, finished 20-for-30 for 249 yards and an interception. He also added 14 yards rushing and was sacked twice.

Houston took a 10-7 lead on the heels of a 36-yard field goal by Lawrence with 10 seconds left in the first half.

Anthony Alridge was held to a season-low 29 yards rushing and four-yards receiving. Overall, UH was held to 32 yards rushing and no touchdowns.

Brian Bonner and Jason Phillips tallied 10 tackles apiece to lead the TCU defense. Phillips also added two tackles for a loss and a sack.

Chase Turner set three Texas Bowl punting records including the longest punt in bowl history (65 yards), highest gross punting average (50.2) and most punts (6).

2008 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 34, Air Force 28

Dec. 31, 2008 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Freshman running back Bryce Beall rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown and added 92 receiving yards to help lead the University of Houston football team to a 34-28 win over Air Force during the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Beall, who accounted for 229 yards of all-purpose yards, finished the season with 1,247 rushing yards, becoming the first freshman in school history to reach that milestone.

With the win, the Cougars finished the season with an 8-5 record and won their first bowl game since a 35-0 decision over Navy during the 1980 Garden State Bowl in East Rutherford, N.J., on Dec. 22, 1980. The win snapped an eight-game losing skid in bowl games.

Sophomore quarterback Case Keenum threw for 252 yards and a touchdown on 22-of-33 passing but saw his school-record streak of consecutive 300-yard passing games snapped at 13 straight games dating back to last season.

The game started on a positive note for the Cougars when Roisean Haynes forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and junior Brandon Brinkley jumped on the loose ball to set up the offense on the Air Force 25.

Four plays later, Beall plunged into the end zone from one yard out to hand the Cougars an early 7-0 lead.

Air Force wasted little time in knotting the game at 7-7. Taking over on their 23-yard line, the Falcons marched 77 yards in little less than two minutes with six straight rushing plays and tied the game on Jared Tew's 2-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Cougars embarked on an eight-play, 65-yard drive that was capped by Keenum's 1-yard sneak into the end zone.

Later in the period, freshman linebacker Marcus McGraw stripped Asher Clark of the ball at the Air Force 24 and senior defensive end Phillip Hunt pounced on the loose ball and returned it to the Air Force 14. However, the Falcon defense stiffened and freshman kicker Jordan Mannisto's nailed a 22-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in the period.

On its ensuing possession, Air Force marched 76 yards in 12 plays and pulled to within a field goal at 17-14 on Tim Jefferson's 5-yard touchdown run at the 9:52 mark of the second quarter.

After a Cougar punt, a missed 28-yard field goal by Air Force and another UH punt, Air Force tied the game at 17-17 when Ryan Harrison booted a 44-yard field with 2:28 left in the first half.

Air Force looked ready to grab its first lead of the game when a Cougar fumble on the ensuing kickoff put the Falcons at the UH 29-yard line with 2:21 remaining. But the UH defense stiffened and pushed AFA back nine yards then Harrison missed from 55 yards out.

The two teams traded scoring possessions in the third quarter. UH took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards on a seven-play drive that was capped on Keenum's 4-yard touchdown run with 12:28 remaining in the period for a 24-17 lead.

Air Force took over on the next possession on an 18-play drive that consumed 51 yards and took more than eight-and-a-half minutes off the clock. However the Cougar defense limited the Falcons to Harrison's 37-yard field goal with 3:46 left in the period to maintain a 24-20 advantage.

Houston looked to take control of the game, extending their lead, 31-20 on 20-yard field goal attempt by Mannisto and a punt by the Falcons on their next possession.

Five plays later, Keenum's pass to senior tight end Mark Hafner was intercepted and returned 19 yards by Aaron Kirchoff. The Falcons would pull within three after the interception on a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Tim Jefferson.

The Cougars capped the game with a 37-yard field goal from Mannisto with 3:24 left on the clock.

2009 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Air Force 47, rv/#25 Houston 20

Dec. 31, 2009 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Asher Clark and Jared Tew each ran for more than 100 yards with two touchdowns and Air Force's top-ranked pass defense had six interceptions against Case Keenum, leading the Falcons to a 47-20 victory over Houston in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Air Force's plan to limit Keenum and the nation's most explosive offense worked almost flawlessly. The Falcons ran for 402 yards to go with Tim Jefferson's effective passing (10 of 14 for 161 yards), holding the ball for 41 minutes and then coming up with the big defensive plays.

Keenum, who leads the nation in yards passing, was 24 of 41 with a season-low 222 yards and a touchdown for the Cougars (10-4). The six picks were a career high. In his other 13 games this season, he had only nine interceptions while throwing for 5,449 yards and 43 touchdowns.

After Air Force went ahead on Clark's 36-yard TD to cap the opening drive of the game, Keenum's first pass attempt deflected off his falling receiver and was intercepted by Wright. That set up Tew's 6-yard TD run for a 14-0 lead.

Tew finished with 26 carries for 173 yards, He had a 71-yard TD with 3:32 left in the game after Keenum tossed his fifth interception.

Clark had 17 carries for 129 yards for the Falcons, who had lost in the Armed Forces Bowl the past two seasons, including 34-28 to Houston a year ago. Air Force had lost three postseason games since winning in the 2000 Silicon Valley Bowl.

Houston's bowl win last year capped coach Kevin Sumlin's debut season and snapped an eight-game postseason losing streak that had spanned 28 years.

After Houston was held without a touchdown before halftime, Tyron Carrier returned the opening kickoff of the second half 79 yards for his fourth TD this season. He took the ball near the left sideline, then ran to the middle of the field before shooting through a gap and running untouched to get the Cougars within 24-13.

Air Force immediately responded with its first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1985. Jonathan Warzeka fielded the ball and stepped back into the end zone before running 100 yards. Five Houston players got their hands on him, but couldn't get him down.

According to STATS LLC, which has such data only since 1996, it was only the sixth game in that span involving FBS teams when there were kickoff returns for touchdowns on consecutive plays. None of them had been in a bowl game.

After the kickoff returns, Keenum threw a 10-yard TD to Patrick Edwards to make it 31-20, but that was all the Cougars got.

That gave Keenum a TD pass in 30 consecutive games , but this was the first time in that streak that he had more picks than scores.

The Cougars entered the Fort Worth Bowl leading the nation in total yards (581) while averaging 44 points. They managed only 331 total yards against the Falcons.

Air Force had allowed only 149 yards passing a game this season, even after giving up 377 in its regular-season finale at BYU.

Clark's 22-yard TD midway through the second quarter, when he took a pitch to the right and ran untouched to the end zone, made it 21-3. The only pass on that 11-play drive was a 13-yard completion by Jefferson, who by then was 5 of 5 for 71 yards, 10 more than Keenum.

When Jefferson slipped down trying to run on third-and-goal from the 2 with 17 seconds and no timeouts left just before halftime, he quickly got the offense off the field and the kicking team got out in time for Erik Soderberg's 27-yard field goal that made it 24-6.

2012 TICKET CITY BOWL

#20/17 Houston 30, #24/23 Penn State 14

Jan. 2, 2012 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Case Keenum finished his record-setting career with another performance for the history books.

The sixth-year senior threw for 532 yards and three touchdowns, leading No. 20 Houston to 30-14 victory against No. 24 Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

The Cougars (13-1) finished with a school record for victories and made Tony Levine a winner in his debut as Houston coach. Levine took over when Kevin Sumlin left to take the Texas A&M job after the regular season.

Keenum came into the game as the NCAA's career leader in yards passing and touchdowns passes, then set a bowl record with 227 yards passing in the first quarter.

"I'm biased, obviously. I'd put him right at the top," Levine said when asked where Keenum ranks among the best college quarterbacks of all time. "You don't win 13 games by accident and I don't think you don't break the records he broke by accident, either."

Keenum wasn't concerned with his place. He leaves Houston as the school career leader with 37 wins, and that's what he chose to focus on.

"As far as rankings and all that goes, I'm concerned with our team ranking and how we end up," Keenum said. "Thirteen and one, I hope we end up in the top 15 in the country."

"I thought the guys came out and they played hard. It's been a difficult year for them," Penn State interim coach Tom Bradley said. "It just didn't go our way."

The Nittany Lions (9-4) were picked apart by Keenum. Penn State was allowing 162 yards passing per game, but Keenum threw for more than double that by halftime.

The Cougars raced out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter behind Keenum's record-setting period. According to TicketCity officials, Louisville's Browning Nagle had the old mark with 223 yards against Alabama in the first quarter of the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

Keenum worked the spread offense to perfection, with five different Cougars catching at least five balls. Patrick Edwards, one of the country's leading receivers, had 228 yards and two scores in the last game of his collegiate career. Justin Johnson had 12 catches for 148 yards.

Keenum is the ninth player in bowl history to pass for at least 500 yards. He thought he could have done better.

"We left a lot out there," Keenum said. "There were a lot of throws I missed."

Houston came into the game determined to end the season on a high note having its BCS Bowl hopes dashed on Dec. 3. The undefeated Cougars fell to Southern Miss in the Conference USA championship game, costing UH a shot at the school's first BCS bid.

"That was the fluke," Levine said of the lone loss, "and not the 12 wins leading up to it."

Penn State quarterback Rob Bolden finished 7 of 26 passing for 137 yards, with three interceptions. Houston wanted Bolden, the backup quarterback all season, to air it out as much as possible.

"We know they were going to try to run the ball," Cougars linebacker Marcus McGraw said. "We just wanted to get them in second and long, third and long, and wanted them to pass the ball knowing they had a second-string quarterback."

2014 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Vanderbilt 41, Houston 24

Jan. 4, 2014 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Houston lost the bowl game but found a new wide receiver to watch.

Markeith Ambles had a touchdown catch as Houston rallied to pull even after trailing by 24 points, but the Cougars couldn't keep pace and Vanderbilt controlled the fourth quarter for a 41-24 victory in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

Ambles, a former top high school recruit who began his career at Southern California, had six catches for 105 yards, including a 6-yard touchdown catch.

Houston coach Tony Levine said he anticipated Ambles' breakout game after the junior had only 11 catches in nine regular-season games. He joined the program late in preseason practice and made his debut the third week of the season.

Houston gained only 22 yards and had one first down in the first half but tied the game with 24 points in the third quarter. Kenneth Farrow had a 6-yard scoring run and John O'Korn threw scoring passes to and Deontay Greenberry and Ambles.

O'Korn completed 16 of 31 passes for 220 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions. Daniel Spencer had three carries for 69 yards.

Vanderbilt's Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to Jordan Matthews. Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston's big third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

Vanderbilt closed the season with five straight wins, adding to Franklin's status as a possible candidate for coaching vacancies, including at Penn State and with the NFL Browns and Redskins. The Commodores played in three straight bowl games under Franklin - a first for the program - and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

Franklin talked after the game about Vanderbilt's returning players. He left the interview room without replying when asked if he would be back.

No Houston defender was near Matthews on his second 50-yard scoring catch in the second quarter. It capped a dominant first half for the Commodores.

Levine said he told his players at halftime they could make up the 24-point deficit quickly.

A lost fumble by Robinette set up Farrow's 6-yard touchdown run to start Houston's third-quarter comeback.

Houston built on the momentum. Spencer's 62-yard run set up O'Korn's 6-yard touchdown pass to Ambles. O'Korn's 58-yard pass to Ambles set up a 30-yard field goal by Kyle Bullard. O'Korn's 67-yard touchdown pass to Greenberry tied the game.

Matthews, a senior who set Southeastern Conference records for career catches and yards receiving, had five catches for 143 yards and two touchdowns and was named the game's MVP.

Robinette completed only one pass to another receiver - for 11 yards to Jonathan Krause. Robinette completed 6 of 17 passes for 154 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Seymour had 14 carries for 46 yards.

Matthews took advantage of a lead block by Krause to make his first touchdown catch.

A forced fumble by linebacker Chase Garnham set up the Commodores' second touchdown. After Houston's O'Korn threw a pass to Greg Ward Jr., a big hit by Garnham forced the fumbled recovered by Andrew Williamson at the Houston 16. Robinette, making his third career start, scored on an 8-yard keeper on fourth down.

BOWL HISTORY

2015 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 35, Pittsburgh 34

Jan. 2, 2015 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Houston quarterback Greg Ward had just thrown his third touchdown in a flurried comeback that included two recovered onside kicks in a row to get the Cougars within a point in the Armed Forces Bowl.

"We decided to go for two at the end because we had the momentum," Gibbs said.

Deontay Greenberry, already with two TD catches in that final 3:41, made a leaping catch in the back of the end zone for the two-point conversion and the Cougars beat Pittsburgh 35-34 on Friday with an improbable comeback - the largest in an FBS game this season, and largest ever in a bowl game that didn't go into overtime.

Pitt (6-7) led 31-6 when ACC offensive player of the year James Conner had his second touchdown run with 14 minutes left in the game. The Panthers were still up 34-13 after Chris Blewitt's 29-yard field goal with 6:14 left before Houston's big finish.

Ward had an 8-yard TD pass to Greenberry before the Cougars recovered their first onside kick. That led to a 29-yard catch by Demarcus Ayers on a fourth-and-13 play with 1:58 left, and Houston tried another onside kick.

While the second one didn't go 10 yards on the rain-slickened field, the ball was touched by the same Pitt defender who couldn't handle the first one before Houston running back Kenneth Farrow jumped on it at the Cougars 43. Greenberry started the drive with a 38-yard catch, then on third-and-16 had a 25-yard TD with 59 seconds left.

Ward, the former Cougars receiver, had 237 of his 274 yards passing in the fourth quarter and also ran for 92 yards.

Farrow ran 22 times for 103 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars, who have split their four appearances in the 12-year history of the Armed Forces Bowl.

Conner's 1-yard TD run a minute into the second quarter capped a 15-play, 92-yard drive, and Pitt led until the final minute of the game. The Cougars had a missed extra point after Farrow's 2-yard TD in the second quarter when Kyle Bullard slipped while kicking.

Voytik threw was 18-of-35 passing for 222 yards and an impressive 16-yard TD catch by tight end J.P. Holtz between two defenders in the front corner of the end zone. But Voytik had six consecutive incompletions on a final desperate drive when only a pass interference penalty got Pitt a first down.

Boyd had nine catches for 112 yards, his 11th career 100-yard receiving game and moving from seventh to fourth on Pitt's career reception mark with 163, two more than Larry Fitzgerald.

2015 CHICK-fil-A PEACH BOWL

#14/16 Houston 38, #9/8 Florida State 24

Dec. 31, 2015 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta

Greg Ward Jr. and the Houston Cougars showed they could thrive in a big-game atmosphere against a big-name opponent.

Ward ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, leading Houston Football past turnover-plagued Florida State 38-24 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Eve.

Dalvin Cook was held to 33 yards rushing with a touchdown and a lost fumble. That left the Seminoles with five turnovers - half their total of 10 in 12 regular-season games.

Houston scored the most points allowed by Florida State this season.

The No. 9 Seminoles (10-3), who trailed 21-3 at halftime, tried to rally with two fourth-quarter touchdown passes by Sean Maguire.

Ward, the nation's only player to run for 1,000 yards and throw for 2,000 yards this season, threw for 238 yards and ran for 67 yards for No. 14 Houston (13-1).

Houston safety Trevon Stewart and cornerback William Jackson III each had two interceptions. Stewart also recovered a fumble.

Ward, the junior who started at wide receiver early last season before becoming a full-time quarterback, had touchdown runs of 7 and 6 yards. He left the game briefly after taking a hit in the third quarter, and was shaken up again with about 4 minutes remaining.

Ward returned to take the final snaps of the game, raising his arm in celebration before laying on his back, wallowing in the confetti which fell from the Georgia Dome roof. He was named offensive MVP of the game.

Houston's only loss this season, to Connecticut, came when Ward was out with an injury. He kept the Florida State defense off-balance by leading the Cougars' fast-tempo, no-huddle attack.

Maguire's 65-yard scoring pass to Travis Rudolph cut Houston's lead to 24-17 early in the fourth quarter. Ward answered with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chance Allen, who was left uncovered as Florida State sent a defensive back on a blitz. Maguire added a scoring pass to Jesus Wilson later in the final quarter.

Maguire was hurt in the first quarter when hit by Adams. Maguire couldn't put pressure on his left leg as he was supported by trainers before leaving the field on a cart.

When Maguire was out, backup J.J. Cosentino completed only 1 of 4 passes for 5 yards. Maguire returned midway through the second quarter with the ankle wrapped.

Maguire's last interception came with 25 seconds remaining. He completed 22 of 44 passes for 392 yards with two touchdowns and four interceptions.

The Cougars won 13 games for the second time in school history, following the 2011 season.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 LAS VEGAS BOWL

rv/rv San Diego State 34, rv/rv Houston 10

Dec. 17, 2016 • Sam Boyd Stadium • Las Vegas

Donnel Pumphrey broke the NCAA career rushing record Saturday in his college finale, running for 115 yards and a touchdown in San Diego State's 34-10 victory over Houston in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Pumphrey passed former Wisconsin star Ron Dayne's mark of 6,397 yards on a 15-yard run early in the fourth quarter, wrapping up his career with 6,405 yards.

Pumphrey's senior total of 2,133 yards rushing ranks in the top 10 for an FBS player.

Ron Smith returned an interception 54 yards for a touchdown, Curtis Anderson caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Christian Chapman, Juwan Washington ran for a touchdown, and John Baron kicked two field goals for the Aztecs (11-3). They overcame a 10-0 first-quarter deficit against the Cougars (9-4) for their second consecutive bowl win.

Neither the victory nor Pumphrey's record-setting performance seemed likely after Houston's defense absolutely smothered the Aztecs in the first quarter. Led by freshman Ed Oliver, Houston had seven tackles for loss on San Diego State's first 16 plays. Pumphrey had minus-1 yard rushing on seven carries in the first quarter and the Aztecs didn't have a first down until the first play of the second quarter - on a penalty for running into the kicker.

But Pumphrey started to gash Houston on the perimeter, giving San Diego State the lead for good on a 32-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, and the defense intercepted four of Houston quarterback Greg Ward Jr.'s passes in the second half.

"When you are leaving your defense out there too long that's what happens," Houston coach Major Applewhite said. "When you give a great back that many at-bats and that many opportunities, one is going to hit at some point and it did."

Ward threw for 229 yards and had a 2-yard touchdown run, tying Bryce Beall's school record of 39 rushing touchdowns.

Houston finished with 254 yards of total offense and just 25 yards rushing.

2017 HAWAI'I BOWL

rv/rv Fresno State 33, Houston 27

Dec. 24, 2017 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

Houston Football saw its 2017 season come to an end as Fresno State earned a 33-27 win over the Cougars in the Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium.

Houston quarterback D'Eriq King finished with 269 passing yards on 23-of-43 passing with one touchdown, while rushing for 38 yards on nine carries.

Steven Dunbar, the Hawai'i Bowl MVP representative for Houston, led the offensive attack with 197 yards receiving on 10 catches. The 197 yards was a career-high and the 10 receptions tied a career-best for the senior in his final game in Scarlet and White.

Linell Bonner finished with 39 yards on seven catches and a touchdown.

Defensively, Alexander Myres had nine tackles and registered a blocked field goal return of 94 yards for a touchdown. D'Juan Hines tallied six tackles, while adding an interception and forced fumble.

Caden Novikoff hit two 31-yard field goals.

Houston Football jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Fresno State with 11:35 to play in the first half sparked by a 48-yard reception by Dunbar from King. The play led to a 1-yard touchdown rush for Ed Oliver, his first career rushing attempt.

The defense opened the game with four straight three-and-out stops on the Bulldogs, highlighted by an interception from Hines, his first career takeaway.

Fresno State found the end zone on an 11-play drive that ended the first quarter and rolled into a score to open the second quarter to make it a 7-7 game.

The Bulldogs grabbed their first lead of the game following a 27-yard field goal to go ahead, 10-7 with 9:45 left in the first half.

King found Dunbar for a 50-yard first down, which set up a 31-yard field goal for Novikoff, making it a 10-10 game with 7:17 left in the second quarter.

Fresno State hit a 38-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to take a 13-10 lead into halftime.

Houston quickly responded to open the third quarter as the Cougars drove the field to set up a 31-yard field goal attempt for Novikoff, who made it a 13-13 game midway through the third.

Fresno State jumped back ahead with 4:21 remaining in the third on a 9-play, 75-yard drive as a 6-yard rushing touchdown ended the drive to make it 20-13.

After a Houston fumble, the Bulldogs attempted a 24-yard field goal, but Jeremy Winchester was credited with the blocked field goal, which was then returned by Myres for 94 yards and the touchdown to make it a 20-20 game with 2:54 left in the third quarter.

The blocked field goal return of 94 yards was the longest in Houston Football history.

Fresno State kicker Jimmy Camacho nailed his third field goal of the day, a 26-yarder, to put the Bulldogs back on top, 23-20 with 13:56 left in the game and then went on to break the Hawai'i Bowl record with his fourth made field goal -- a 33-yarder to give them a 6-point advantage.

The Bulldogs picked off a Houston pass and returned it for 44 yards to make it a 33-20 game.

Houston used a 16-play, 76-yard drive to find the end zone as King's pass to Bonner for two yards made it a 33-27 game with 45 seconds left in the game.

Fresno State quarterback Marcus McMaryion passed for 342 yards on a 33-for-48 effort.

2018 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

#22/25 Army 70, Houston 14

Dec. 22, 2018 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Army quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. ran for 170 yards and an Armed Forces Bowl-record five touchdowns and the No. 22 Black Knights overwhelmed Houston 70-14 to reach 11 wins for the first time in program history.

The Black Knights won their ninth consecutive game since an overtime loss at playoff team Oklahoma exactly three months earlier.

Hopkins had a nifty 77-yard TD run on the last play of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead. The junior quarterback initially ran right before cutting back the other way and alluding one tackler. He sent two other defenders sliding to the ground when he switched directions again back toward the middle of the field.

Houston lost for the fourth time in five games since starting 7-1 and getting into the AP Top 25 poll for a week in late October. The Cougars suffered their most-lopsided loss in their 27 bowl games, and their biggest loss overall since a 66-10 loss at UCLA in 1997.

Along with his 11 rushing attempts before coming out of the game midway through the third quarter when it was 49-7, Hopkins completed the first 1,000-yard passing season for Army since 2007. He was 3-of-3 passing for 70 yards, including a 54-yarder that set up one of his three 1-yard TD plunges. He also had a 2-yard TD run.

Army got 507 of its 592 total yards on the ground in its highest-scoring game this season - and the most points in the program's nine bowl appearances. The Black Knights won a bowl for the third consecutive year, including last year's Armed Force Bowl over San Diego State.

2020 NEW MEXICO BOWL

Hawai'i 28, Houston 14

Dec. 24, 2020 • Toyota Stadium • Frisco, Texas

Sophomore wide receiver Nathaniel Dell posted six catches for 112 yards and a touchdown, but it would not be enough as Hawai'i took advantage of a quick start to claim a 28-14 win in the New Mexico Bowl inside Toyota Stadium.

Hawai'i took advantage of two Houston turnovers to score 14 points in the first quarter and built a 21-0 lead at the halftime break.

However, the Cougars mounted a comeback in the second half and moved to within a touchdown in the third quarter.

After compiling only 87 yards in the entire first half, Houston took the second-half kickoff and embarked on a 17-play, 75-yard drive that was capped when junior quarterback hit Dell on a 7-yard touchdown strike for a 21-7 Hawai'i lead with 7:39 left.

Forcing a 3-and-out on Hawai'i's next possession, the Cougars made it a one-score game at 21-14 when Tune connected with junior tight end Christian Trahan on a 26-yard touchdown with 3:45 remaining.

Unfortunately, that would be as close as Houston would get the rest of the way. On the ensuing kickoff, Hawai'i's Calvin Turner outraced the Cougar defenders to the end zone on a 92-yard touchdown return.

Tune finished with 216 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 20-of-38 passing but was picked off three times. Trahan posted five catches for 88 yards and a score, while senior running back Mulbah Car led the Houston ground attack with 47 rushing yards on 15 carries.

Hawai'i quarterback Chevan Cordeiro led the Rainbow Warriors with 136 passing yards and three touchdowns.

On the defensive side, Houston defensive back Hasaan Hypolite led the Cougars with 10 tackles, including five solo stops, and added a pass breakup. Senior safety Deontay Anderson logged nine tackles and one sack as the Cougars limited Hawai'i to just 35 total yards.

2021 TICKETSMARTER BIRMINGHAM BOWL

#21/21 Houston 17, Auburn 13

Dec. 28, 2021 • Protective Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

from Associated Press

Quarterback Clayton Tune and the Cougars punctuated an impressive season with a win in Southeastern Conference country.

Wide receiver Jake Herslow caught a 26-yard, go-ahead touchdown pass from Tune with 3:27 left to help lift No. 21 Houston to a 17-13 victory over Auburn in the TicketSmarter Birmingham Bowl in front of a mostly orange-and-blue crowd at Protective Stadium.

The Cougars marched 80 yards in eight plays to cap the third season in program history with at least 12 wins. They snapped a four-game bowl losing streak and won 12 of their final 13 games, the only loss after the opener coming to No. 4 Cincinnati in the American Athletic Conference championship game.

Head Coach Dana Holgorsen said this win was similar to "some other ones that we've had this year."

"Just a bunch of guys that fight hard and win," Holgorsen said. "Basically, winning this game solidified this 2021 football team at the University of Houston as a great football team."

The Tigers went in the opposite direction at the end of coach Bryan Harsin's first season. They ended with five straight losses for the first time in 71 years and dropped their third bowl game in a row.

Game MVP Tune completed 26 of 40 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns with an interception while also rushing for 43 yards. Wide receiver Nathaniel Dell caught 10 passes for 150 yards, while running back Alton McCaskill ran for 66 yards and caught a touchdown pass.

"That's kind of been our offense this whole season, is when we've needed to make plays we do," Tune said. "There was no panic."

And Herslow, who walked on after playing for Old Dominion from 2017-19, delivered the biggest catch. He's a player Horgorsen called "one of the best stories in college football."

Auburn, which fired offensive coordinator Mike Bobo after the regular season, had one more chance but couldn't get a first down. Tank Bigsby ran for 8 yards on first down and then T.J. Finley threw three straight incompletions on short passes.

Houston ran out the clock.

Finley completed 19 of 34 passes for 227 yards and a touchdown in his third start since replacing injured Bo Nix. Bigsby had 88 rushing yards and 68 receiving yards.

The Cougars had moved across midfield for the go-ahead score after Auburn's second targeting ejection, this time against Jaylin Simpson.

Tune set it up with a 20-yard pass to tight end Christian Trahan.

The Tigers rallied from a 10-0 deficit to take the lead late in the third quarter on Kobe Hudson's 12-yard touchdown catch from Finley on third and goal.

Auburn had several promising drives stall.

2022 RADIANCE TECHNOLOGIES INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Houston 23, Louisiana 16

Dec. 23, 2022 • Independence Stadium • Shreveport, La.

from Associated Press

University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune connected with junior wideout Nathaniel Dell for a 12-yard touchdown with 20 seconds remaining, and Houston rallied from a 13-point deficit to beat Louisiana 23-16 inside Independence Stadium in the Radium Technologies Independence Bowl.

The TD pass was Tune's third of the game and 40th of the season, tying him with Western Kentucky's Austin Reed for the most in the nation. Before the winning throw, he completed a 41-yard pass to KeSean Carter on third-and-30 to move Houston into Ragin' Cajuns territory.

The Cougars never led until that late touchdown as Tune heated up amid unseasonably cold temperatures in northwest Louisiana. It was 25 degrees at kickoff, with a wind chill of 12 degrees.

Louisiana led 13-0 midway through the second quarter and 16-6 at halftime.

Tune, who finished 19 of 28 for 216 yards and was named the Independence Bowl Offensive MVP, led Houston on a 13-play, 70-yard drive to open the second half and hit Dell for a 2-yard touchdown that made it 16-13. Senior defensive back Art Green was named the game's Defensive MVP after recording nine tackles.

Clinging to a 3-point lead, Louisiana stuffed Houston on fourth-and-short at the Ragin' Cajuns 5-yard line midway through the third quarter, but the Cougars eventually tied the game on Kyle Ramsey's 19-yard field early in the fourth.

The Ragin' Cajuns wasted a chance to retake the lead when running back Chris Smith fumbled at the Houston 4.

Louisiana located three hours south of Shreveport, took the opening kick and orchestrated a 15-play, 75-yard drive that ended when tight end Johnny Lumpkin made a dazzling touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone.

The Cajuns got three field goals in the first half from by Kenneth Almendares (42, 42, and 22 yards). Chandler Fields finished 17 of 25 passing for 169 yards and a touchdown.

Tune's first TD toss was a 33-yarder to Carter in the second quarter. Carter finished with 104 yards on three catches, and Dell had six receptions for 44 yards and the two TDs.

BOWL HISTORY

2025 KINDER'S TEXAS BOWL

rv/#24 Houston vs. LSU

Dec. 27, 2025 • NRG Stadium • Houston

from Associated Press

Junior quarterback Conner Weigman threw for 236 yards and four touchdowns as Houston rallied from an early 14-0 deficit for a 38-35 victory over LSU in the Kinder's Texas Bowl.

Weigman finished 27-of-36 passing and rushed for 56 yards for the Cougars (10-3), who were playing about 6 miles from their campus at the home of the NFL's Houston Texans. He threw touchdown passes of eight and four yards to wide receiver Amare Thomas and seven yards to tight end Tanner Koziol to end the first half as Houston climbed out of a 14-0 hole to take a 21-14 lead into the break.

Kicker Ethan Sanchez made a 25-yard field goal to give the Cougars a 31-28 lead with 7:42 remaining. LSU went three-and-out, and Dean Connors rushed for a 20-yard touchdown with 2:23 left to give Houston a 10-point lead, its largest of the game.

LSU's Zavion Thomas cut the deficit to three with a 3-yard rushing touchdown with 1:15 to go, but Houston recovered the onside kick to ice it.

Koziol caught nine passes for 76 yards and a TD. Thomas had seven catches for 66 yards and two scores, and Connors ran for 126 yards for Houston, his third 100-yard rushing game as a Cougar. The Cougars outgained LSU 437-344. Connors' 977 rushing yards on the year are the most by a Cougar running back since 2014.

LSU opened a 14-0 lead in the first 4:12 on a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Barion Brown to start the game and a 23-yard touchdown pass from Michael Van Buren Jr. to Trey'Dez Green.

Van Buren finished 16 of 26 for 267 yards and three touchdowns. He threw scoring passes of 4 yards to Green and 6 yards to Kyle Parker, sandwiched around a 2-yard TD pass from Weigman to Traville Frederick Jr., to tie it 28-all early in the fourth quarter.

Green had 80 yards receiving, and Parker had 68 yards receiving.
